Bursting Tire Is Followed by Fatality in Golden Gate Park

Chauffeur of Machine Placed in Arrest on Charge of Manslaughter

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—A bursting tire on a big, high-power automobile, traveling at a lively clip along the main drive in Golden Gate park at 4:15 this morning, caused an accident resulting in the death of Shirley Wickman, of 116 Mason street, and a slight injury to three other occupants of the machine.

The injured are: J. S. Donnelly, a salesman, 4105 Eighteenth street; cut about the head. Maud Long, stenographer, 1058 Mission street; bruises, suffering from shock. May Allen, 1658 Mission street; minor cuts and shock.

Albert Schuer, chauffeur of the car, was arrested by Detectives Drolet and Bailey and charged with manslaughter at the city prison.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

Following the accident, Schuer halted a passing machine and the injured, including the dead girl, were taken to St. Mary's hospital. After Miss Wickman had been pronounced lifeless the other persons became so excited that they placed her body once more in the machine and sped with it to the morgue.

Schuer, who lives at the Hotel Van Dorn, together with J. F. Mason, of 120 Ellis street, accompanied by Maud Long and May Allen, left the corner of Mason and Eddy street shortly after 2 o'clock for Tom's cabin. From there they proceeded to the Casino, where they had supper, after which J. F. Donnelly, a friend of Schuer's, who had been spending some time at the resort, requested that he and his young lady friend, Shirley Wickman, be allowed to accompany them back to town in the automobile.

THE RETURN TRIP.

Accordingly, the six started on the return trip, Schuer sitting alone in front and the other five occupying seats in the tonneau. They had gone but a short distance when Donnelly shouted to Schuer to take a spin up the beach. The car was turned and about a half mile of the journey had been covered when, opposite McLane's bend, a rear tire blew out, the car skidded on the disabled wheel, was unable to stand the strain, collapsed, and the three woman occupants and Donnelly were thrown to the roadway. The Wickman girl was caught in the disabled wheel and her head smashed almost to a pulp by the spokes.

The car could not be stopped immediately.

WIRELESS TELLS OF THE OCCUPATION OF TRIPOLI

WAR TO BE ENDED, IS RUMOR

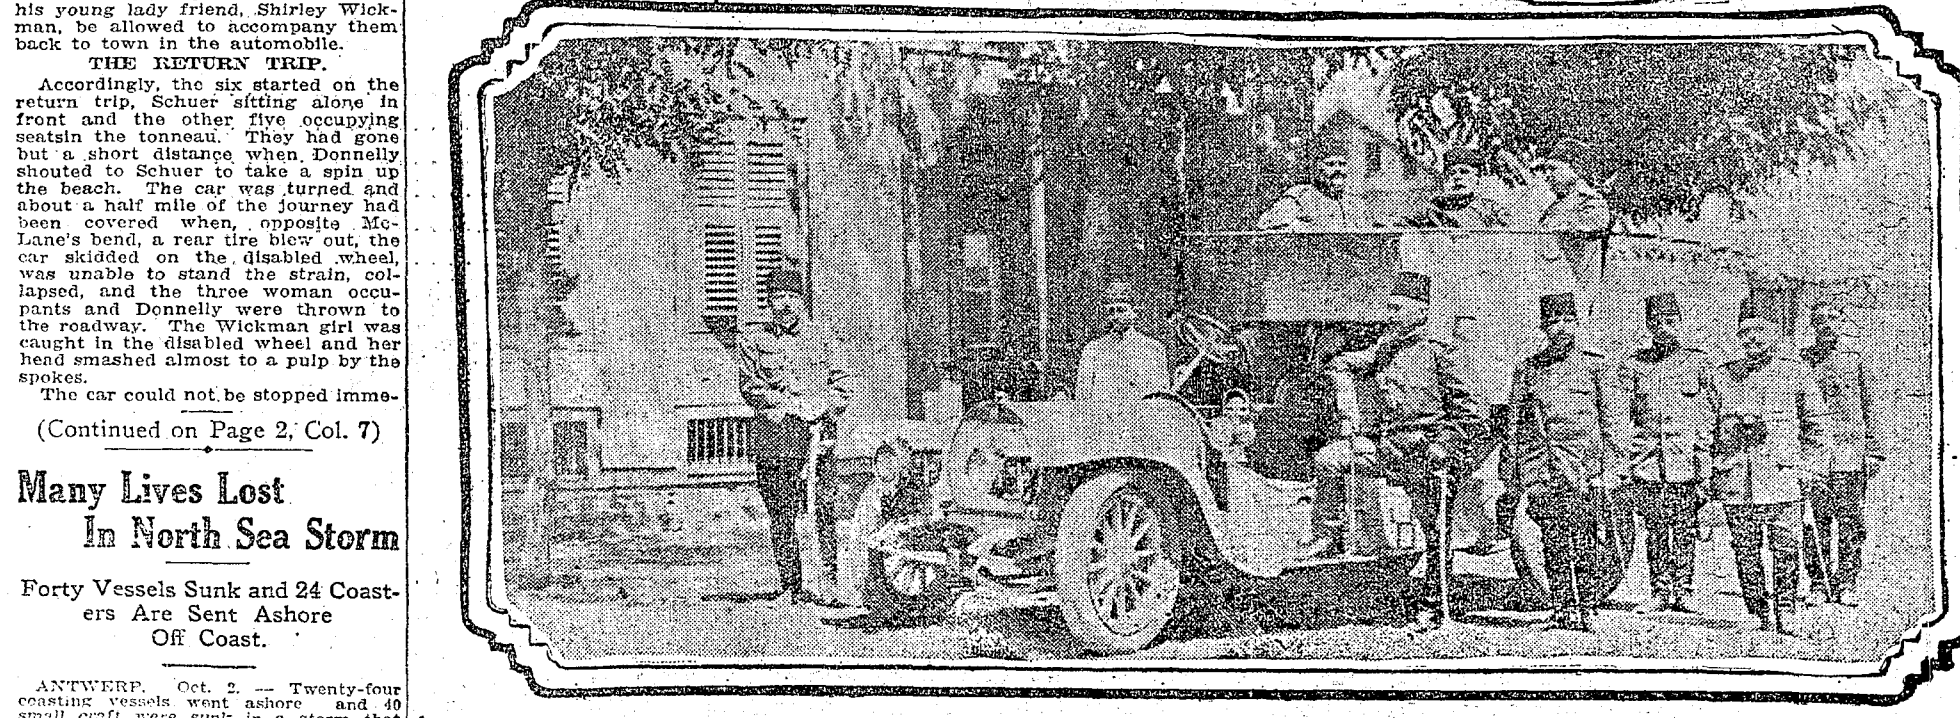

Bombardment of Tripoli Still Matter of Doubt; Many Reports Afloat

The outstanding feature of the Turko-Italian war news today is the attempted mediation of Germany, the success of which appears more probable in the light of the statement made at the German foreign office today, that a report that the German Ambassador at Constantinople had presented Italian proposals for peace "was premature," indicating that such proposals were expected.

Cable communications with Tripoli remains cut off, but the city had not been bombarded up to Saturday midnight, according to refugees arriving in Malta this morning. This appears to confirm the report from Italy that the bombardment was delayed pending peace proposals.

COL. JOHN P. IRISH ACCEPTS CHALLENGE OF REV. DR. AKED

Colonel John P. Irish has sent to Rev. Dr. Aked the following acceptance of his challenge to a suffrage debate:

OAKLAND, Oct. 1, 1911.

Dr. Aked—Sir: Your last letter was published before it was received by me. You have challenged me to a public discussion. As the challenged party I have choice of weapons. You cannot dictate to me as to the appointment of a committee or anything else. I will open the debate in thirty minutes. You will have an hour and I will close in thirty minutes. This makes a discussion of two hours, which is about the limit of endurance of which an audience is capable.

Colonel Irish adds that Dr. Aked's committee can get co-operation in providing an auditorium for the debate by calling on the Anti-Suffrage Association in the St. Paul building on Geary street, San Francisco.

REAR ADMIRAL SCHLEY DROPS DEAD IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley dropped dead today near Forty-fourth street and Fifth avenue while on his way down town. The admiral died before medical aid could reach him.

Admiral Schley had been out of town over Sunday and on his return had gone to the New York Yacht club in West Forty-fourth street. After a short stay at the club Admiral Schley started to walk along Forty-fourth street toward Fifth avenue when he was suddenly taken ill.

As Admiral Schley walked along the street a chauffeur of a taxicab who stood alongside the curb bowed to him and then turned to a fellow chauffeur and remarked how well the admiral was looking. Near the Berkeley Theater, Admiral Schley started across the street and as he stepped upon the curb, a passerby saw him fall. Several persons rushed to his aid and traffic policemen sent in a hurry call for physicians and an ambulance. Admiral Schley died before the ambulance arrived.

Dr. Miller of Flower hospital, after a superficial examination, said death was caused by apoplexy. Admiral Schley spent the summer at Lake George and two weeks ago went to Mount Kisco, about thirty miles north of here, to visit a married daughter, Mrs. R. M. Stewart Wentley.

WAS 72 YEARS OLD.

Winfield Scott Schley was born at Richfield, near Frederick, Md., Oct. 10, 1839.

STRIKERS FACE FEDERAL COURT'S SWEEPING ORDER

Affects All Members of All the Unions in Mississippi Concerned in the Illinois Central Walkout

Southern Pacific Co. Makes Alleged Abortive Attempt to Induce Its Employees to Resume Work in West Oakland Yards

NON-UNION MAN IS BEATEN IN CHICAGO

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 2.—A temporary injunction, sweeping in its provisions, and applying to the entire state of Mississippi, was issued here today by Federal Judge Niles, against all the members of all the unions on strike on the Illinois Central railroad system.

This injunction follows rioting at Jackson and McComb City, where efforts were made to detach cars from trains bearing strikebreakers.

Efforts were made all day yesterday and this morning by agents of the Southern Pacific Company to induce the striking employees to return to work. John Muir, an employee in the offices at the mole, made a house-to-house canvass through West Oakland, where striking employees reside in large numbers, and appealed to the women of the household to use their persuasion to have their husbands or sons or brothers visit the yards, where they would learn something to their advantage. Once in the yards, the matter was put up to them to resume their labor, and it is said that in practically every instance the men refused to consider the proposal. In several cases helpers to the striking craftsmen were offered employment on the turntables in the yards, and when they had worked there a short time were asked if they would just as soon go into the machine shops. These offers were refused and several men left the yards. Any of the strikers who desired could work on the turntables, as this form of employment does not come under the jurisdiction of the striking unions, but under the Federation of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen.

The canvass commenced yesterday by company agents though continued this morning, is not bringing any material results.

UNION PICKETS STATIONED

Union pickets are now stationed at all points around the barbed wire surmounted stockades. Persons attempting to pass through are questioned by them. Yesterday any man who had acquiesced to the solicitation of agents to go inside the enclosure and there meet the company's officers was stopped at the gate and told what the situation was that he would face on getting inside.

A meeting was called for 10 o'clock at the permanent headquarters of the striking unions in the West Oakland Athletic Pavilion, at Eighth and Pine streets. Affairs pertaining to the walkout were discussed at length by the advisory committee. While it is not known just how many strike-breakers are now quartered in the yard, it is understood that they commenced work this morning. The capacity of the shops is seriously crippled.

Preparations are being made within the enclosure to care for the non-union laborers, as more will probably arrive during the day. So far there has been no friction between the two contingents, and every precaution is being taken by the union leaders to prevent any outbreak.

Acting upon instructions from the headquarters of the international union, the local striking body with united efforts will endeavor to make the walk-out complete as affecting this division. A sympathetic strike will be urged.

The first organization affected will probably be that of the switchmen, who, it is understood, have notified the company that they will not handle cars coupled by other than union men, or cars upon which non-union repairs have worked. In the event of the switchmen walking out, the action probably will not happen for several days, or until work done by non-union men has to be utilized.

Following a meeting of the strikers this morning in the West Oakland Athletic Pavilion, statements of the advisory committee made last Saturday were reiterated. They declared the men were out to stay, and that they have sufficient backing to enable them to ber 9, 1839, and was the fourth son of John Thomas Schley, a well-to-do landowner. He was educated at St. John's college and Frederick Academy and then received his appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. He first saw active service during the Civil War, being assigned to duty when the war broke out and serving until the end. In 1863 Schley was married to Miss Annie Rebecca Franklin.

Following the Civil War Schley was with the American Squadron in the Pacific, in China, Japan and Korea, on the west coast of Africa and on the east coast of South America.

In 1884 he commanded the expedition sent into the Arctic regions to rescue A. W. Greeley, the explorer, who tried to find the North Pole. In June 1871 he stormed the forts of the Salvo River in Korea.

DESTROYED SPANISH FLEET

At the outbreak of the Spanish-American war in 1898, Rear Admiral Schley was dispatched to Santiago with an American squadron and on July 3 destroyed the Spanish fleet, under command of Cervera, in the battle of Santiago.

After the war Admiral Schley was presented with a gold sword by the people of Pennsylvania, a jeweled medal of honor by the legislature of Maryland and a silver service by the people of Maryland.

Admiral Schley wrote and published several books dealing with life in the navy. Chief of these were "Forty-Five Years Under the Flag," published in 1904, and "The Rescue of Greeley," prepared with the assistance of Professor James R. Sole, and published in 1886.

Admiral Schley was a member of the New York Yacht Club, the American Yacht Club, the Seawanhaka Yacht Club of New York and the United Service and Metropolitan clubs.

OAKLANDER DIES AT ADVANCED AGE

William Hill Passes Just Week After Celebration of Wedding Anniversary.

Just a week after celebrating the fifty-fifth anniversary of his wedding with his wife in the midst of representatives of his family for four generations, William Hill, 85 years of age, passed away last evening in his home in Elmhurst, in this city, death being due to age. The deceased was a pioneer of Oakland, having been a resident of this city since 1876.

Only last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Hill, surrounded by their children, fourteen grandchildren and one representative of the fourth generation, joined in the anniversary festivities for the fifty-fifth celebration of the marriage. Hill was at that time bright and merry, and delighted the members of his family with tales of early days and of the adventures of his youth. His death yesterday was entirely unexpected, but came as the result of the natural breakdown from old age.

Hill was born in Sidney, Australia, in 1826, and lived there for many years. After visiting many portions of the globe, Hill came to Oakland and decided to settle here in 1876. In this city he raised his family and several are now well known residents of Oakland.

The deceased is survived by a widow, Mrs. Margaret Hill of Elmhurst; by six daughters, Mrs. A. Johnson, Mrs. M. J. O'Dea and Mrs. J. J. Roberts of Oakland, Mrs. J. Goughan and Mrs. E. Campbell of Sacramento and Mrs. J. Dufor of Vallejo and by a son, William Hill of Oakland. Fourteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild are also living.

The funeral will be held from a local funeral parlor tomorrow and following the ceremony the remains will be cremated.

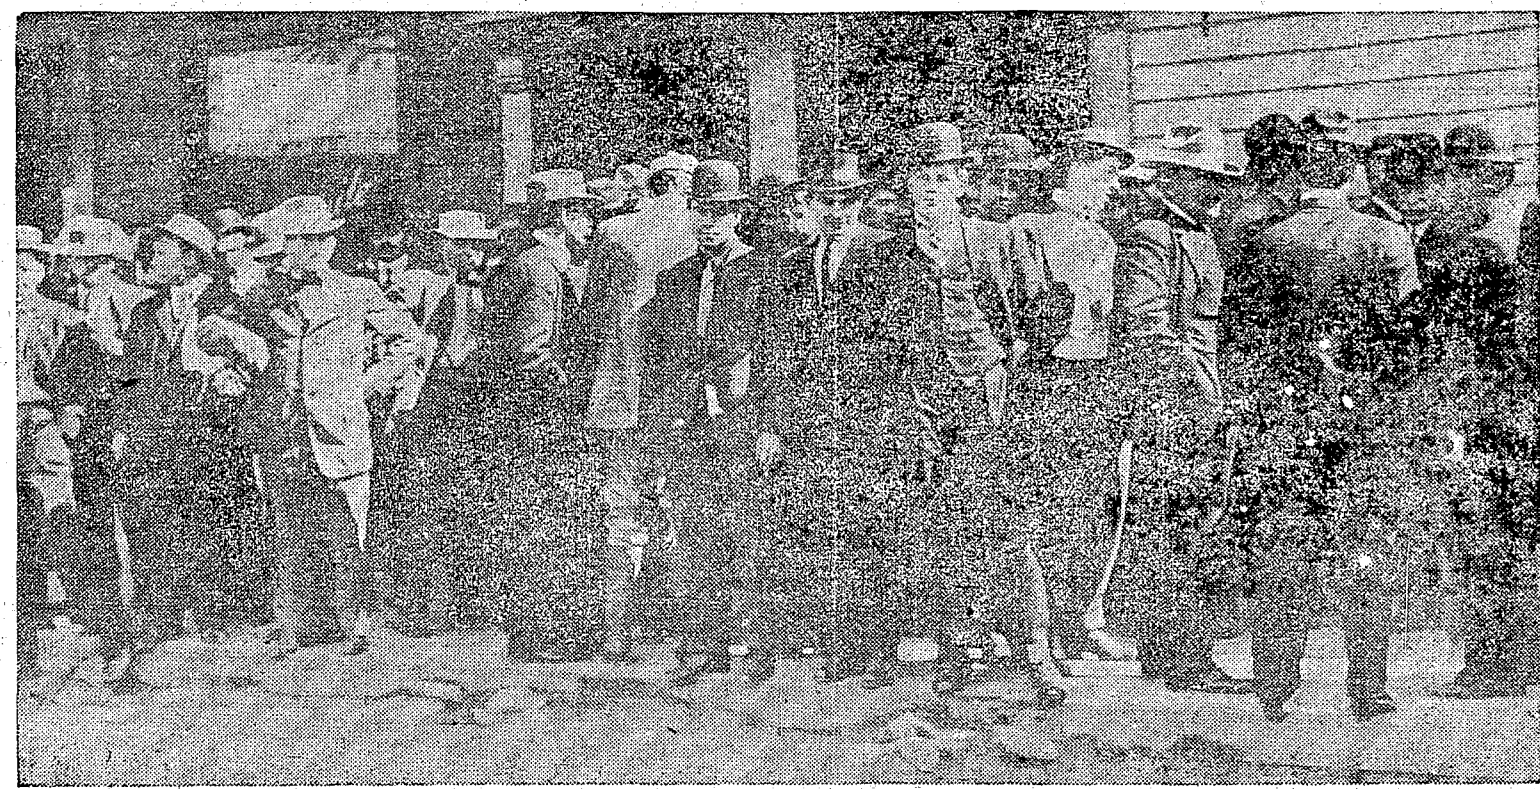

CITY COUNCIL GRANTS TWO LIQUOR LICENSES

Removal of location—N. Carey and P. N. Hendrich, 1264 Broadway, saloon, from No. 1255 Broadway.

do so indefinitely. While there are a few helpers in the yards who are not members of unions these men are continually laying down their tools and are being taken into the organization.

Yesterday the carmen initiated twenty-seven candidates, and there are other applications for admission to all the unions. Rumors about the West Oakland yards at noon today were to the effect that preparations have been made inside the stockades to care for 500 strike-breakers. A sufficient number of cots have been set up in the shops and large ranges put in for kitchen use. Supplies are also being taken in large quantities, so that, from all appearances, the railroad people are preparing for a long siege.

A. C. Hinkley, master mechanic, who is personally at work in the yards, this morning directed a force of men who have been retained one way or another at work in the shops. The situation is extremely quiet, and there seems to be no great need of the additional force of policemen who have been sworn in. Trains are being handled as usual on time, but attended with greater difficulty in making them up, owing to the shortage of inspectors.

Harry Kilduff, organizer of the Switchmen's Union, is in Oakland. Kilduff would not say just what action would be taken by his organization, but his presence here at this time is significant and he is keeping in close touch with the union men.

At this time the total number of men who walked out of the West Oakland shops is conservatively estimated at 600, although the strikers have not as yet compiled the figures showing the exact number. In addition to the union men, a large number of helpers have walked out in sympathy. In the event of the switchmen striking the number of men out would be materially increased.

Strikers Resort to Violence in Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Violence broke out today among the striking employees of the Illinois Central Railway shops at Burnside, which resulted in a riot call being sent to the Kensington police station. John Chomas, a carpenter, who declined to walk out with the other men, was assaulted by four union pickets as he was going to work today. He was struck on the head with a brick and immediately was surrounded by a crowd of nearly a hundred strikers. A private watchman employed by the Illinois Central attempted to interfere and was roughly handled and warned to let union pickets alone in the future.

Chomas was rescued by a patrol wagon filled with police, who arrived on the scene as another attack on the man was being made. He escaped with slight injuries. The union pickets fled when they saw the police coming and no arrests were made.

DEAD LINE ESTABLISHED.

As a result of the attack on Chomas a dead line was established at the belt line tracks, which almost encircles the work, at the distance of a city block.

This line was guarded by city police. Charges that a squad of nearly 100 city policemen were on guard within the stockade, prepared to remain there, were made by strikers. This was denied at police headquarters.

Rev. M. W. W. at an early meeting at St. Joachim's Church, warned the strikers against violence and advised them to seek mediation.

STRIKE-BREAKERS AT WORK.

Two hundred strike-breakers were smuggled into the big car shops at Burnside under cover of darkness, according to Illinois Central officials. They also declare that 100 strikers have quietly returned to work since Saturday.

The statement was made that 800 of the 3000 shopmen employed at Burnside are at work today and that this number is being augmented hourly. This statement was made by Special Agent Welch of the railroad, who is assisting the police in protecting property of the company.

UNION PICKETS BUSY.

A score or more of pickets were on duty early today. They worked industriously in their efforts to persuade union men to leave their posts, but with varying success. The union labor leaders declared today that no strike-breakers had been sent to the shops and that none of their men had returned. A mass meeting of strikers was scheduled to be held during the morning.

The gathering of former employees dispersed when the hour for beginning work had passed. Most of them went home and to all outside appearances left the usual Monday morning condition within the stockades. The men declared that fewer than 300 men were at work, many of these former employees, old and infirm, and wearing the pension mark, who had been given permission by the unions to remain at work.

SAYS 20,000 ARE OUT.

J. A. Franklin, international president of the Boilermakers' Union, asserted that 20,000 men quit work on Saturday and that their numbers would be increased. In some instances the unions have given special permission to the older men, long in the employ of the system, who would find difficulty in obtaining employment elsewhere, to remain at work. A strong police guard is held in readiness in this city to quell any trouble that may develop at Burnside, where the main shops of the Illinois Central are located.

The only trouble so far reported occurred yesterday at McComb, Miss., where strike-breakers were stoned.

Strike Situation in S. F. Unchanged

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—The first full working day of the shopmen's strike on the Harriman lines began without disorder or impairment of train service. In this city complete quiet prevails about the shops and virtually all of the actual shop employees remained out. The men who were at work today at several points. Union officials have no statements to make at this time. New figures on the number of men out will be given later, it is said. At the general office of the company the officials are checking up, but until this work is finished, it was said, the statement made last night that only 40 per cent of the men went out, would not be withdrawn.

S. P. Canvassing Los Angeles Strikers

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 2.—Soft pedal and planisimo tactics still mark the progress of the shopmen's strike in Los Angeles. The critical test of the strikers is not expected to come until Thursday, the date set for the expiration of the Salt Lake railroad's offer to take its old men back. The railroad expects nearly all its former employees to return tonight. But the strikers declare there will be no desertions.

Officials of the Southern Pacific still adhere to their announced intention not to import strike breakers, but the union chiefs assert that they are working a scheme calculated to produce the same result—the manning of the shops in spite of the strike. Under this plan, the union men assert, the Southern Pacific is canvassing the strikers with offers to send them to work at shops in Bakersfield, Tucson or elsewhere, so that their defection need not come to the knowledge of their union brethren.

FEW ACCEPT OFFER.

The strikers at other points, it is asserted, are offered jobs in the Los Angeles shops.

Only a few men are accepting the proffer, the union leaders declare. However, railroad officials say that with the men of the old night shift hardly any of whom went out, they have enough to do the work necessary to keep rolling stock and locomotives in condition to take care of all traffic in this district.

The Salt Lake railroad began employing men who were assembled in response to advertisements in morning papers. They were given 43 cents an hour and told to report for work at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Santa Barbara Made Main Repair Point

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 2.—The resumption of work today on the new Southern Pacific roundhouses and shops here, the arrival of a complete commissary with a complement of Chinese cooks, and the fact that the railroad was preparing to make Santa Barbara the main repair point on the coast during the progress of the shopmen's strike.

The reports were given additional strength when the railroad officials asked whether the local police department was able to cope with riots should any develop.

Three locomotives have already been sent here from San Luis Obispo for repairs, and it was stated today that a number of mechanics were on the way here to man the new shops, which are capable of accommodating 200 workmen.

When asked today whether the railroad intended to establish its coast shops here, Trainmaster Cooley refused to talk.

Five S. P. Employees at Tucson on Job

TUCSON, Oct. 2.—Five craftsmen of the Southern Pacific shops who struck Saturday, returned to work today and three more are expected for re-instatement may be put to work later, according to a statement made by Superintendent J. H. Dyer.

H. J. Small, general superintendent of motive power, has authorized the re-employment of as many of the strikers as they wish to return to work. Their re-employment will be under no agreement of any kind.

Of 301 men employed in the motive power and car departments in this entire division, 115 went out. Of that number 10 at Glendale struck, 6 out of 24 went out at Lordsburg and 5 out of 14 at Benson.

S. P. Co. Shopmen at Portland on Strike

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 2.—Union officials' declarations that the 600 Southern Pacific shopmen here who finished their five-day week on Friday night would not return to work were verified this morning. At 8 o'clock only a handful of men reported at the Brooklyn and Albina shops and most of these were old employees whom the strikers had authorized to return to work so they would not lose their chance of participating in the Harriman pension system.

All night pickets kept up a watch of the two shops and other railroad properties, but nothing occurred to indicate that the company was preparing to rush strike-breakers within the stockades. All Harriman trains are moving on approximately schedule time today. Reports from railroad centers outside Portland, company officials say, are reassuring.

Of the 550 men employed in the two local Harriman repair shops less than 10 per cent are at work today, according to figures given out by the strike leaders. The company claims a larger percentage went to work, but is not prepared to give the number at this time.

Strikers Return to Work in Sacramento

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 2.—Twenty of the striking Southern Pacific shopmen who walked out Saturday returned to work today, according to T. W. Heinzelman, superintendent of motive power of the company. Heinzelman issued a statement indicating that the company would continue to re-employ the men for a limited period, providing their record was good. The strike committee of the shopmen held a series of informal conferences in secret throughout the day.

Pickets in sympathy with the strikers were stationed at both entrances to the shops and attempted to induce more of the shopmen to join their ranks, but with apparently little success. The company has placed a special detail of watchmen on guard. So far no acts of violence have been reported.

Hearing on Court Order Postponed

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 2.—The striking clerks have obtained a postponement of the hearing in connection with the temporary restraining order issued against them in the federal court.

COUNTLESS PLANS WAR FOR ESTATE

Mme. Lucius Hopkins Smith Will Fight to Protect Rights of Daughter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—When Madame Lucius Hopkins Smith, a charming French countess, who has been at the Palace for the past ten days with her little daughter, Ruth, left yesterday for the east, it was not merely in the interest of the book that she is writing, nor even to complete her pleasure tour of the country. She is hurrying back to New York to defend the inheritance of her daughter from relatives of Hopkins Smith, who died suddenly in Paris five months ago.

Little Miss Ruth, who is Mrs. Smith's only child, was legally adopted by Smith and brought up as his own child. During the seven years since he married the attractive French widow the little girl has borne his name and was his desire to have his estate divided between his wife and the child.

Fearing a contest by his New York relatives, Smith left no will. The money, which is in the neighborhood of $200,000, should therefore be divided, one-third going to Mrs. Smith and two-thirds to the adopted daughter. The New York relatives contend that the child was not legally adopted and, therefore, is not entitled to any of the money. Mrs. Smith expects a bitter legal battle before the matter is finally settled.

The book that is occupying much of Mrs. Smith's time and attention during this tour will be written in fourteen languages. She laughs when one suggested that it sound like a life work. She has been studying the industries of the various sections of the countries she has visited and will treat of them in her book. Much of her time in New York this winter will be devoted to writing.

Sasabe Captured By Magonistas

Mexican Federals Have Been Dispatched to Relief of the Town.

TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 2.—Sasabe, a Mexican town near the border, southwest of Tucson, has been captured by Magonistas, according to a letter received here today by Colonel W. S. Sturges, a ranch owner, living near the scene of the outbreak. Sturges says cattle round-ups have been scattered by the rebels, who are committing other depredations. Mexican federals from Agua Prieta were dispatched against the insurgents today.

MADERO ELECTED HEAD OF MEXICO

New President Names One Member of Present Cabinet to Remain.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 2.—Francisco I. Madero was elected president of the republic at the election held yesterday and the returns also indicate the election of Jose Pino Suarez of Yucatan, to the vice-presidency.

At the headquarters of the Catholic party, Gabriel Fernandez Somelliers, chairman of the central committee, said he believed Francisco de la Barra had been elected vice-president. The only thing that had appeared reasonably certain tonight was that Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez, independent candidate for the vice-presidency, was snuffed under in the federal district.

Madero announced last night that at least one of the present cabinet, Ernesto Madero, the minister of finance, would remain. Minister Madero demurred, it is said, on the ground that it might raise the cry of nepotism, but today he consented to remain in the portfolio. The port-folio of foreign relations has been offered to de la Barra, but he expressed his unwillingness to accept.

MINERS RESCUED FROM THE TOMB

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Oct. 2.—The 14 men who were entombed in the Shesheo mine at Fairbanks, Alaska, were rescued early today, none the worse for their confinement of 84 hours.

A drill hole through which they had been rescued was enlarged by sawing until it was big enough to permit the body of a man to pass. Then the imprisoned miners were pulled up one at a time to the surface of the ground, 174 feet above.

Ferry Steamer Solano Scene of Small Fire

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—A fire of a minor character broke out on the ferry steamer Solano, plying between Port Costa and Benicia, early this morning, resulting in damage amounting to about $50. There was a fire in the boiler room, but the crew easily extinguished the blaze. The fire resulted in several rumors to the effect that the old ferry had been disabled.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 2.—A proclamation has been issued by the governor general calling upon parliament to assemble on November 13. The date may be changed, however, to suit the convenience of Mr. Borden, the new prime minister.

WATSONVILLE PEOPLE PLANNING FOR FAIR

Efforts are being made by boosters of the Watsonville Apple Show to have that place on October 9 to 14, inclusive, to have a large delegation of Oakland people present, especially on October 11, which will be Panama-Pacific and Bay Cities day. The boosters want an excursion run from here, and will be in Oakland on Wednesday afternoon, to distribute their literature and apples on the city's streets, in an effort to arouse enthusiasm among the Oakland people. Secretary A. A. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce has been asked to arrange for the excursion, under the auspices of that body.

diately and proceeded for seventy-five feet, leaving the occupants on the ground. Mounted Police Officer J. F. Floyd was nearby and went to the assistance of Schuer and Mason. It was first thought that all had been badly hurt, but after J. H. Bryant, of the California Taxicab company, had taken the party to St. Mary's hospital, it was found that all had escaped with superficial injuries save Miss Wickman.

PIECE OF SKULL GONE.

When the morgue was reached it was found that a large piece of the skull of the dead girl was missing and Deputy Coroner Bourne went out and found it near a rock in the roadway. As soon as the body was brought in to the morgue at 5.15 a. m. the detective department was notified and Drolette and Bailey made a careful investigation.

It was found that the rim of the wheel had been literally torn from the spokes when the heavy weight fell upon it after the bursting of the tire. Schuer, when asked for the complete details of the affair, made the following statement:

"I met Mason about 2 a. m. He proposed going to the Oyster Loaf for supper. He had turned in his car to the garage at 64 Golden Gate avenue, and as we were riding down we met Miss Long and Miss Allen and decided on the trip. First we went to Tom's cabin and then to the Casino, where we had supper. Two known Doc. Donnelly for about four years and when he asked me to take himself and his girl into town I consented. It was after we started that he cried out to me to go to the beach and we had only gone a short way when the accident happened."

SEAWELL REFUSES INJUNCTION WRIT

Application Against Temporary Appointments Is Turned Down.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Denying the application of William N. McCarthy for a permanent injunction to restrain the board of works from making "temporary" appointments without the approval of the civil service commission, Superior Judge Seawell declared today that the 880 appointments questioned by McCarthy were in violation of the law. Judge Seawell stated in refusing the injunction that he did so on the ground that the granting of the order would have been premature, as no immediate danger threatened the city.

Charles Wesley Reed, attorney for McCarthy, wins a decisive victory by the court's decision, although what he specifically asked for was denied. His contention that the "temporary" appointments were illegal was upheld by the court. Reed announced that he would institute further proceedings with a view to making the civil service provisions more strictly adhered to in the future.

President George Bowers of the civil service commission declared that the law would be complied with hereafter and that frequent examinations would be held to test the lists.

Meantime while Auditor Boyle and the civil service commissioners are threatening their way through the legal entanglement in which the case is at present involved the 880 "temporary" employees of the board of works, whose applications were questioned, will have to wait for their September wages.

POLICE SEARCH FOR AUTO PARTY

Quartet of Men and Women Who Were With Webster Are Sought.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2. — The police are searching for the occupants of a mysterious yellow automobile which was occupied by two men and two women, said to be from Chicago today, before the body of Mrs. Bessie Kent Webster was found near Dixon, Illinois, stabbed to death by her husband, Dr. Henry E. Webster.

The day after the alleged murder the automobile was seen in Dixon, but one of the women seen the day before was missing. One of the men in the machine was addressed as "doctor," according to employees of a garage.

Police Captain Buler had copies made of Dr. Webster's 10,000 word confession and forwarded them to the authorities at Oregon, Illinois.

ALLEGED BUCKET SHOP IS RAIDED

Posse of Police Arrest Members of Firm of Moss & Co.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—In a spectacular raid in the heart of the mercantile section of the city at 11 o'clock this morning, a posse of police arrested H. O. Moss, a broker, of Moss & Co., 339 Montgomery street; his attorney, Thomas G. Minot, and six employees and twenty-six visitors. Last Friday a restraining order directed against the concern, which is an alleged bucket shop, was dissolved, and today W. G. Jones of Ingleside entered, placed $10 on wheat and raised his hand as a signal. Immediately Policemen Fogarty, Brown, Amend and Mills entered and took every one in tow.

The employees arrested are: Ross Whipple, Earl Ramsey, Carl Carlson, Oda L. Newcomer, William Hesketh and Thomas Bauer.

NEGRO ARRESTED FOR ATTEMPT AT MURDER

Morris grasped the gun in time to divert the bullet, and Gray was placed under arrest. Gray had entered the place with Perkins Vassar, and had immediately started to make trouble, the shooting being the outcome of the affair.

Complexions Flaked Off At Home

(From Pilgrim Magazine.)

The girl with the poor complexion complaint, "I have to touch up my cheeks. I am sallow and a sight, and only my makeup saves my face."

Now, as a matter of fact, more women spoil their good looks than improve them with cosmetics. The practice certainly is unnecessary, now that the virtues of ordinary merrivoxed wax as a beautifier have become known. It has been found that the mercuric oxide in the wax has wonderful absorbent powers. It causes the faded or discolored skin to flake off in minute, almost imperceptible particles, so gently, gradually, as to cause no inconvenience at all. In this way the old complexion is actually removed—likewise all fine lines, pimples, blotches, moth patches and other surface defects. A new complexion appears—a clear, smooth, youthful, healthy-hued skin, such as no paint, powder or lotion can produce. Mercurized wax is to be had at any drug store, is applied like cold cream.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 2. — President Taft received a cordial non-partisan welcome at Lincoln today. W. J. Bryan, rising before the 400 guests at the luncheon here given in Mr. Taft's honor proposed a toast to the President of the United States.

The toast to the President was drunk standing and at its conclusion Mr. Taft returned the compliments which the man he defeated for the Presidency had paid him in felicitous language.

In addition to Mr. Bryan other Republican and Democratic leaders participated in the reception. Chairman Norris one of the leaders of insurgency in the House did not show up either at Omaha or at Lincoln.

President Taft spent the few hours he had in Omaha today in seeing all that was possible of the city and its people. STOMACH MISERY JUST VANISHES

No Indigestion, Sourness Gas or Dyspepsia Five Minutes Later.

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of Indigestion or some form of Stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapiesin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy Stomach five minutes after.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will readily see why it makes Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Heartburn and other distress go in five minutes, and relieve at once such miseries as Belching of Gas, Eructations of sour, undigested food, Nausea, Headaches, Dizziness, Constipation and other Stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from Indigestion and Dyspepsia or an out-of-order stomach with the common, every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe there is a case of Nervous Gastritis, Catarrh of the Stomach or Cancer.

This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and turns to acid, Gas and Stomach poison, which putrefy in the digestive tract and intestines, and besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the Stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapiesin.

WILD FREIGHT CAR KILLS 1; HURTS 9

Crashes Into Trolley and Hurls Occupants Into the Roadway.

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—Herman Schramer, 23 years old, employed in the press-room of the Post-Intelligencer, was killed and nine others hurt when a carload of lumber broke loose from an electric freight train at 4:30 o'clock yesterday near the top of Fauntleroy hill and ran four blocks down a steep grade, crashing into a street car bearing early morning newspapers.

Every window in the street car was smashed, and the bundles of papers and passengers hurled into a heap. Driven by the tremendous impact of the runaway freight car, the two wrecked cars plunged together down the track to the foot of the hill. There is a sharp curve at this point, and the passenger car was derailed, stopping both cars. Lumber from the loaded freight car was strewn a distance of three blocks along the right-of-way from the point where the cars met to Twenty-eighth avenue southwest.

The accident was caused by the snapping of a drawhead on the second car of the freight train. The train consisted of a motor car, a carload of sewer pipe and the carload of lumber.

Schramer, who was suffering from numerous cuts and bruises and internal injuries, was sent to the Seattle general hospital, but died shortly after reaching there.

The other injured included Emil Eldrich, Louis Primble, H. P. Little, B. Shier and Walter Lewis. Five other passengers were slightly bruised.

Schramer was married. His relatives live in Omaha, Neb.

LILY LENA AND ED STEVENS HERE WITH GOWNS AND ART

EDWIN STEVENS as Dick Swiveler, one of the characters he portrays in his melange at the Orpheum.

Edwin Stevens came back yesterday, with Tina Marshall in one hand and Art in the other. And we on the bleachers stood up and gave him the Orpheum college yell with as lusty a zip as ever greeted the men behind a pigskin. All the stage is Stevens' gridiron and every man's heart a football. He boots it and spurs it, dribbles it and runs with it; but he scores, no matter what he does with it.

Do we wax warm? Your indulgence. Being paid to view vaudeville and those responsible with a cold and dispassionate eye, we have neither license to kindly nor franchise to burst into flame. But you who may rejoice because you have paid for the privilege—if you have a gush concealed about your person prepare to shed it now. Gush be you schoolgirl, butcher or baker or coupon cutter! Gush until your appreciation flows from you as oil from a well. And we'll gush along with you. Stevens is our excuse, and where exists better?

HIS ACT A MELANGE.
There is something for all of you in Stevens' 20 minutes on stage. Do you like him best in his rare portraiture gleaned from Jackson's "Dick Swiveler" for you with Tina Marshall his marchioness, both of them awakened Cruikshanks. Perhaps you recall his comedy (yes, there is unalloyed comedy) of the old Tivoli days, and would be pleased with an echo. There's a song and a bit of nonsense that he does he, is to know the why of them. Perhaps, then, he is the psychologist of the stage.

Stevens is hard to classify. He comes from a sense to sublime nonsense so quickly that he is hard to follow. He leaves you glowing and wondering how one small head can carry so much. But to pin him down to genus and species is a task. To be able to portray human frailty, strength and passion as does he, is to know the why of them. Perhaps, then, he is the psychologist of the stage.

LILY LENA AND HER GOWNS.
You'll excuse us if we dwell not on the details of Lily Lena's gown. This neither a dressmaker's convention nor an afternoon tea. Anyway, we wouldn't know a paneled room from an Egyptian temple. Speaking generally we are a success. Miss Lena in any of the five outfits she hypnotized us with yesterday is a vision of delight. Do you know the ecstasy of biting into a gloriously decorated bit of French pastry? If it doesn't give you a toothache you will realize what happiness a glimpse of Lily Lena occasions.

There is spice enough in the songs she offers to bite your tongue, but not so much that you'll cough. Candidly, we don't believe in "Take It Nice and Easy" will ever be done by a church choir, but it isn't at all as bold as it sounds. "I Wish I Were You, Tonight," "Smart Street," "Smile," "Over the Garden Wall" and "Have You Ever Loved Another Little Girl?" were the rest of them she allowed us to listen to yesterday. There's enough lit to the music of her song-stories and enough tilt to their morality to make them worth while.

Lily Lena is a box office success, which is to say that she has earned the right to see her name in two-foot letters on the billboard. Her ability to wear artistic gowns artistically, to look becoming in this season's bonnets, to tell tales musically—that is the secret of her salary.

THE GODDESS PROTESTS.
We have had an argument and have come off second best. Yes, it was with a woman. And we here solemnly announce, with a shamed countenance, that sometimes we don't know what we talk about. About, about, about, about, thousand readers: "We could have told

RELIGIOUS FAST MAKES HIM MANIAC

LONG BEACH, Cal., Oct. 2.—A. L. Wyatt, who is believed to be a retired Baptist minister of Phoenix, Arizona, is in a sanitarium here today following a week of religious fasting, the climax of which was an alleged attempt to smother his wife to death between the mattresses of her bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt came here a short time ago and took down their lives in open air religious meetings. A week ago they began a fast, eating absolutely nothing and devoting all their time to prayer.

Sunday morning fellow occupants of the apartment house where they lived, were alarmed by shrieks. The police were called and arrived in time to save the life of Mrs. Wyatt who also is in the sanitarium. Her husband became violent and still is in restraint.

WOULD SEND ALL JUDGES TO JAIL

SAN JOSE, Oct. 2.—Charles Montgomery, head of the State prison reform commission, last night advocated the jailing of every judge for ten days before putting him on the bench in order to give him first-hand information as to prison conditions and environs. The address was made at a Los Gatos mass meeting.

CHROME IRON DEPOSIT UNCOVERED IN ALASKA

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 2.—A Seward, Alaska, cable says extensive deposits of chrome iron have been found in Red Mountain, seven miles from Seldovia, Western Alaska. A mining engineer has just made a detailed report of the find to J. D. Meenach, a rich Valdez mining man, who has bonded the property for a Pittsburgh steel firm. The report is briefly as follows:

The formation of the country is chiefly chert. The chrome lies in a vein running through the country for a distance of five miles. Outcrops throughout this distance show that the width of the vein is from fifteen to twenty-five feet. One deposit of pure chrome is four feet in width and is exposed for a distance of 400 feet.

On the northeast end of the mineralized bolts there is a deposit of chrome eight feet in width and traced for 1500 feet. This latter apparently runs right through the mountain.

WILD FREIGHT CAR KILLS 1; HURTS 9

Crashes Into Trolley and Hurls Occupants Into the Roadway.

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—Herman Schramer, 23 years old, employed in the press-room of the Post-Intelligencer, was killed and nine others hurt when a carload of lumber broke loose from an electric freight train at 4:30 o'clock yesterday near the top of Fauntleroy hill and ran four blocks down a steep grade, crashing into a street car bearing early morning newspapers.

Every window in the street car was smashed, and the bundles of papers and passengers hurled into a heap. Driven by the tremendous impact of the runaway freight car, the two wrecked cars plunged together down the track to the foot of the hill. There is a sharp curve at this point, and the passenger car was derailed, stopping both cars. Lumber from the loaded freight car was strewn a distance of three blocks along the right-of-way from the point where the cars met to Twenty-eighth avenue southwest.

The accident was caused by the snapping of a drawhead on the second car of the freight train. The train consisted of a motor car, a carload of sewer pipe and the carload of lumber.

Schramer, who was suffering from numerous cuts and bruises and internal injuries, was sent to the Seattle general hospital, but died shortly after reaching there.

The other injured included Emil Eldrich, Louis Primble, H. P. Little, B. Shier and Walter Lewis. Five other passengers were slightly bruised.

More Proof That Hyomei Ends the Misery of Catarrh. Read It

"This is to certify that I was a sufferer of catarrh in its worst form for almost ten years, having been treated by nine different doctors, all of whom failed to give me any relief, saying nothing of a cure. Seeing your HYOMEI advertised, I procured an outfit five years ago last March, and to the surprise of myself and friends I was benefited before the first bottle was used. I have been able to work every day since. When I have a cold I breathe through my inhaler and take no medicine. I have not used fifty cents' worth of any other medicine since that time. Hoping that many others afflicted with this same disease or consumption will give it a free trial. Very respectfully, W. V. Kliner, Beach Haven, Pa., R. D., 1911.

For catarrh, asthma, catarrhal deafness, bronchitis, croup, coughs and colds HYOMEI is guaranteed. Complete outfit, which includes inhaler, $1.00. Extra bottles, if needed, 50 cents. Sold by pharmacists everywhere. Free sample and booklet from Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

GRANTING OF RIGHTS WILL RENEW CONTEST

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 2.—The decision of Judge John Hunt of San Francisco that a non-resident alien can maintain a suit in the courts of this State means that the heirs of Pincus Levin of this city, vice-president of the Levin Tanning Company, who lost his life in the railroad wreck at Ignacio last year, can maintain the suit for damages brought against the North Western Pacific.

The point also applies in the suit of Young Lup, to recover damages in this county for the killing of a Chinese who was struck by an automobile and killed near this city several months ago. The same point was raised in that case.

The matter was presented on demurrer by Allen B. Ware and Joe P. Berry, counsel for the Levin heirs, and Judge Hunt sustained the demurrer, holding that a non-resident alien may sue.

FIFTY PERSONS HURT.
ABBEVILLE, La., Oct. 2.—Fifty persons were injured, a number seriously, and several hundred thrown into a panic yesterday when a grand and at a west side park wrestling bout collapsed. Several sustained broken limbs.

'SUNSET' TRAINS COMPANY'S PRIDE

Southern Pacific Route to Cut Time Between Coast and New Orleans.

Modern travel, already luxurious, is to be made even more so by the Southern Pacific Sunset Route. Plans for a new train to run twice weekly between New Orleans and Los Angeles and San Francisco call for a cut of 30 hours in the running time between the two points. The new schedule with its attendant comforts, has been brought about by the heavy winter travel between the two points on the Sunset Route, and to care for this new equipment is now being built at the Pullman shops at Chicago.

The trains will be all steel. The cars will be of latest design and will contain every comfort now in use on the fastest and best equipped trains, and many new conveniences in addition.

BUILT FOR HIGH SPEED.

The trains will consist of only six cars, and thus the high speed that will be demanded to make the schedule may be maintained with comparative ease. Each train will carry only a dynamo and baggage car, a diner, three drawing room sleepers and an observation smoking car. The sleeping and drawing room cars will be finished in mahogany and other beautiful hardwoods and furnished in luxurious fashion. The sleeping cars will each contain ten sections, two compartments and a drawing room. They are being built with an especial regard to the comfort of women, in that the accommodations for them will be most commodious. A ladies' maid, manicure and hairdresser will aid in caring for the needs of the women.

The men also will be well taken care of, there being a barber, shower bath, arrangements for pressing clothing and a stenographer aboard.

The berths are to be electric lighted, both upper and lower, and electric fans will cool the air of the car.

The dust and dirt of transcontinental travel will be eliminated as much as possible by the installation of vacuum cleaners that will do away with the offensive brushing up of dirt in the cars. At all terminals the trains will be given telephone connections and travelers will be enabled to talk with friends in the city without leaving the train.

PREVIOUS RECORDS TO BE BROKEN.
Service on the "Sunset Limited" will begin December 4 from New Orleans and the following day from San Francisco. The trains will leave New Orleans at 12:30 noon Mondays and Thursdays at each week and arrive in Los Angeles at 9:15 p. m. every Wednesday and Saturday, and in San Francisco at 11 a. m. the following days.

On the eastern trip trains will leave San Francisco at 6:30 p. m. Tuesdays and Saturdays, Los Angeles at 8:30 a. m. the following days and arrive in New Orleans at 7:30 p. m. every Friday and Tuesday. The running time between Los Angeles and New Orleans will thus be cut to 55 hours and 50 minutes and between San Francisco and New Orleans to 70 hours and 50 minutes, or less than three days for the trip that now takes more than four.

The luxuries afforded the traveler and the speed attained are such that an excess fare of $10 will be charged between the two terminals.

CONNECTION WITH STEAMSHIPS.
The time of the two trains has been gauged so that direct and quick connection will be made at both ends of the route with ocean steamships. Travelers from San Francisco bound for the east and north may take this train and be whittled to the Louisiana metropolis and there transfer to fast trains or steamships of the Southern Pacific. On the western trip the man who is hurrying to catch one of the vessels of the Pacific Mail will have an additional day for business and still make his boat.

The service when inaugurated will be a unique departure in railroad history. The trains will be different from any in the United States, the equipment of the latest and best and every care will be taken for the safety of passengers.

A woman may be a perfect lady while enroute on the coast, but she certainly doesn't look it.

JOYOUS 'LA BOHEME' STIRS AUDIENCE AT IDORA PARK

Wonderful Work of Lambardi Singers to Be Memory

(By HARRY L. SULLY.)

The evil taste which has lingered in the mouths of all lovers of Puccini music since the ghastly misproduction of "La Boheme" in San Francisco a year ago was washed away last night by a torrent of pure and joyous melody, when the Bohemian lyric drama was given its first production of the season by the Lambardi troupe at Idora Park. There were many things that made the evening a notable one, among these being the return of Chevalier Fulgenzio Guerrieri, and the advent of a new tenor, Salvatore Sciarretti. But above all else rose the gladness that "La Boheme," debased and made a thing of disagreeable memory, had been again restored to the high place in the affections of opera-goers maintained by the score of companies which have presented the opera in the bay region since its American premiere here in 1895.

San Franciscans and Oaklanders have a peculiar interest in Puccini's "La Boheme," as they look upon it as a discovery made by them. "La Boheme" was given for the first time in the United States in the old California theater in San Francisco by the Del Conte Opera Company. The opera lovers immediately stamped it with their highest approval, and never wavered in devotion thereafter. "La Boheme" was given by the same opera company in New York a year later, but it was not until two years after the San Francisco premiere that it found its way into the Metropolitan opera house repertoire, and it took several seasons for the slower appreciation of the Gothamites to follow the lead of California in appraising the Puccini music.

OPERA STILL FRESH.

Last night, after being heard almost a score of times, "La Boheme" was still fresh and young and lovely. The Lambardis called forth the greatest enthusiasm that has yet been accorded them, even eclipsing the stormy ovation given the first production of "Madam Butterfly."

It was like one of the old Tivoli nights in San Francisco, when the Italians helped to form the taste of Californians in music by their applause and even more invincible hisses, when the ignorant enthusiast interrupted the music at the wrong time. The Italians shouted and hissed last night in the most proper manner of the gallery and about half the lower floor, and were not content until they had three times brought Chevalier Guerrieri, just returned from Italy upon the stage. Luigi Cecchetti and Mario Hadiger, the two conductors who have held the baton for the past five weeks over the opera band, are men of ability. But Chevalier Guerrieri is a maestro. He is a man who rises far above the mere time-beater, or even the leader who beats time and guides his band successfully from pianissimo to forte.

WITHOUT SCORE.

Chevalier Guerrieri holds no baton over his bandmen, and he works without a score before him. Like a sculptor in sound, he works with pliant hands, moulding the music to the heart's desire. He is a conductor who makes of his orchestra a single instrument, and he plays upon it like a virtuoso. With large and expressive gestures, he sweeps his men on to victory; with powerful fingers gripped he holds them steady for an attack; with the vigilance of a creature of the jungle stalking its prey, he watches his singers and makes his band follow with instant perfection each standing and nuance of the artistry of the vocalist. He is the magician weaving a spell with masterful hands to hold singers, orchestra and audience in a dream of entrancing beauty.

Sharing the honors with Guerrieri was the new tenor, Salvatore Sciarretti, who accompanied the conductor from Italy. Without disparaging in the least the good voices heard already in this season, it is safe to say that Sciarretti is the best tenor heard this season. He has more the real tenor quality of voice and his acting is exceptionally intelligent as Rodolfo. With excellent handling of the male and lower registers in his voice, especially in the lyrical passages, he controls a clear and brilliant forte with the genuine Italian staccato rip at the finish. Sciarretti's singing of the famous "Racconto Rodolfo" in the first act called for an encore, and his voice was heard in exquisite blending with that of Emilia Leovall and with Angelo Antola in the duets.

The production of the Parisian idyl of the Latin quarter last night was remarkable for the perfect balance of the cast. There was not a weak point in the production. Angelo Antola makes an incomparable Marcello, giving the part all the drollery, all the fiery humor and all the dare-devil, happy-go-lucky madness and pathos of the true Bohemian.

Emilia Leovall keeps on improving in voice and in winning her audiences. Working under difficulties due to illness, her debut at the beginning of the season was not a happy one. Despite the first impression she has worked her way to a position that makes her one of the great favorites in the company, and her singing of the trail heroines of Puccini's "Butterfly" and "Boheme" is an unalloyed joy to the opera goer. Her Mimi is not only lyrically but dramatically excellent.

Adalgisa Giannì scored her greatest success so far as "coquettish Musetta." She carried old opera lovers back to the days of the greatly beloved Italia Repetto of old Tivoli days. She brought down the house with her seductive singing of "Quando me'n vo soletta" in the second act.

Alceste Mori won his encore with the famous "Song of the old coast" and Pietro Bugamelli proved one of the best Schaunards heard here in many years. Aristide Neri attained his usual high standard of excellence.

With Lydia Levy, in the soprano roles of Olympia, Julietta and Antonia, Jacques Offenbach's masterpiece, "The Love Tales of Hoffman," will be given its first production of the season Wednesday evening of this week. It promises to be an event of the season. "Carmen" will be given tonight with Elvira Bosetti in the eponymous role, and the new tenor, Salvatore Sciarretti, as Don Jose. "La Boheme" is billed for tomorrow night.

COAL LAND POLICY UPHELD BY FISHER

Secretary of Interior Denies Basis for Charges of Rep. Mondell.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Maintaining that the policy of the United States Government with regard to the valuation of coal lands is not open to the criticisms against it, and that it is designed to prevent monopolization and to encourage development, Walter L. Fisher, Secretary of the Interior, last night made public his reply to protests against that policy submitted to him last June by Representative Frank Mondell of Wyoming.

Representative Mondell charged that prices fixed by the government were prohibitive; that they paralyzed the coal industry in the west, resulted in increasing the cost of coal to the consumer from 50 cents to $1 a ton and created a monopoly.

Mondell also said that prices for coal lands in all the working fields run from $150 to $500 an acre; that millions of acres are rated at values above $150 an acre; that prices in the better fields are in excess of those charged in commercial practice on the same fields or for better-grade coals in eastern fields.

All these allegations Secretary Fisher submits as "apparently based on misapprehension as to the basis on which valuation is made, as to the prices placed on coal lands and as to the effect which the classifications have had on the sale of public lands. The prices now fixed," Secretary Fisher continues, "are designed not to create monopoly in the hands of present owners of coal lands, but to prevent monopoly by making it unprofitable to purchase large areas for indefinite holding without development."

"This, in fact, is the constant aim of the department in prices which it puts upon public coal lands—to make them low enough so as to encourage purchase for immediate development, yet sufficiently high as to discourage speculation for long-time holdings for speculation or for monopolization. Prices prohibiting development would be inimical to the present interests of the west; prices permitting purchases with a view to monopolization would be inimical to their future interests. The sole object, therefore, is to value the lands as to permit development and to prohibit speculation."

"In view of all the facts, however, I am convinced that the prices now being placed on the public coal lands are neither unreasonable nor exorbitant, and that the increase in the sale of coal lands for the four-year fiscal period subsequent to July 1, 1907, in comparison with the preceding four-year period, together with the present condition of the western coal industry, demonstrates conclusively that the present classification policy is not open to the criticism which you make."

Secretary Fisher suggests that a liberal but wisely protected leasing law might be found to promote development more vigorously than any system of outright purchase, such as was the case in Australia and New Zealand and adopted by Canada and its Yukon territory.

Referring to Mondell's charge that millions of acres are rated at values above $150 an acre as "the highest price paid" by coal purchasers, Secretary Fisher says there cannot be millions of acres of classified lands so rated, since only 16,000,000 acres of coal lands have been priced to date.

The law loosely defines a man's residence as the place where he sleeps. Strictly it is the place where he undresses and gets into bed and tries all the latest cures for insomnia.—Puck.

DETECTIVES ON SUSPECTS' TRAIL

Believed That Assailants of John Mau Will Be Arrested Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—The detectives who have been investigating the shooting of John Mau, a grocer of 1228 Twenty-ninth avenue, South, supposedly by burglars early Sunday morning, believe they have the culprits under surveillance and hope to have them in custody before tonight.

Detective Sergeant McGowan stated this morning that the suspicions of Mau, who is resting easily at St. Mary's hospital, that a relative had done the shooting out of revenge, was unfounded, and that as far as his inquiries went the suspected person was innocent.

He stated, however, that he had a good line on the suspects and that the arrest might be made at any moment.

Stomach Sufferers Squander Millions

In Search of Relief.

The world is full of disordered stomachs, and 90 per cent of the money spent upon physicians and drugs goes in an attempt to cure the stomach.

People are made to believe that in order to gain health they must doctor their stomachs and use cathartics. The doctor gets his fee for the stomach treatment, and the druggist for the physic, until the savings of a lifetime are exhausted and yet no cure.

Let's be reasonable. The sick stomach is in every case the result of over-eating, hurried mastication, or the improper choice of foods. The mucous lining all the way down the food tract loses its sensitiveness, and when food is forced down the muscles fail to respond. They do not churn the food as they should. The glands no longer give out gastric juice to dissolve the food and render it capable of assimilation. The man has become a dyspeptic.

There is one sure way and only one to bring positive relief. Put into that stomach of yours the very elements that it lacks to get that food into liquid form. It takes pepsin, diastase, goldenrod and other ferments to accomplish this. The healthy stomach contains these elements. The dyspeptic stomach lacks part or all of them. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet is made up of just what the dyspeptic stomach lacks—Nature's digestives.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a medicine, nor a drug, not a cathartic. They do not cure anybody of anything but Dyspepsia and Indigestion and such ailments as arise from poorly digested food.

While they digest the food the stomach recuperates. The mucous membrane is coming out of its stupor, the gastric juice is coming to the surface, the muscles are regaining their power. Every organ of the body takes on new life, the skin gains color, and the eyes are no longer tinged with yellow. You live.

Any doctor and why drug yourself? Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will take care of your food while Nature cures you.

Try a box at your druggists, 50 cents. Or, if you prefer a free trial package before buying, send your name and address today. F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

ACCUSED ISLAND
SHARPER JAILED

Dr. A. M. Water, arrested at Key Route Inn by Honolulu Official.

Through the efforts of the local detective department, Dr. A. M. Water, alias Dr. A. M. Walker, alleged confidence operator and bunco man, was arrested yesterday at the instance of Deputy High Sheriff of Honolulu J. L. Coke.

The arrest was made at the Key Route Inn and the prisoner is now in the Alameda county jail, where he will be confined until the arrival of extradition papers from the Islands.

The indictment returned by the grand jury, charging Water with issuing several fictitious checks.

According to Coke, who is an attorney in the Islands, Dr. Water is one of the smoothest sharpers who has ever operated in that territory. Several indictments, among them for swindling, were returned against him.

Water was in trouble in San Francisco some months ago, being arrested at the Palace Hotel, where he had taken up his abode. In this city he was known as a man of refined appearance. He has been learned by the sleuths on the case that the prisoner has been receiving mail at various postoffices in this section under many aliases.

The requisition papers for his extradition to Honolulu are expected to arrive about October 5.

ON TRIAL TODAY

Accused by Wife of Man Who Shot Him in City Prison.

Mrs. F. J. Farrelly is the complaining witness against Holland, who was induced to come here from Los Angeles by means of a fake telegram, and turned over to the police by the husband. The alleged felonious assault occurred over a year ago and, following Holland's arrest and denial of the accusation, Farrelly, with a derringer concealed in his vest, visited the accused at the city prison and shot him when a convenient opportunity presented itself. He is awaiting trial charged with assault to murder.

ARRESTED AFTER FIGHT WITH POLICE

Henry Billington Leads Officers Merry Chase for Brief Time.

Henry Billington, arrested last night after a battle with several policemen, was arraigned this morning in Judge George Samuels' court on charges of vulgar language and auto speeding, and his case was put over to tomorrow morning to give him an opportunity to plead.

The trouble resulted from a drunken row at the headquarters of a number of chauffeurs beneath the armory of Company A, National Guard of California, on Twentieth street near Broadway.

Major E. A. Thomas telephoned to the police that there was trouble in the place, and Patrolman Nightengale was sent. Billington attempted to escape by driving away in an automobile, and Nightengale was carried for half a block clinging to the machine before he lost his hold and fell to the street. Billington returned, and in a fight which followed, the patrolman knocked him to the street. Billington took refuge in the chauffeur's club and was dislodged by a posse of police. He was taken to the Receiving hospital and afterwards lodged for the night in the city prison.

KILLS HIMSELF TO CONQUER LIQUOR

Manuel Felton Takes Burden From Family's Neck With a Shot.

When Manuel Felton, an employee of the Union Gas Engine Company discovered that he was unable to let drink alone, and that far from being protector and support of his wife and five small children, he was in danger of becoming almost a burden, he went late Saturday night to a lonely place near the Southern Pacific station at Fruitvale and fired two shots through his brain. The body was found Sunday morning by the police with the revolver still resting in the outstretched hand.

Felton, who resided at East Tenth street and Twenty-sixth avenue, had been drinking heavily in Oakland Saturday, and on returning homeward with Joe Costa of Twenty-fourth and Warder streets told Costa that he had taken his last drink. Costa thought he meant that he was going to try temperance, but when told of the suicide today, realized that the words had a different significance. Felton leaves a widow and five small children. He was 41 years old.

Federal Tribunal Has No Jurisdiction, Declares Court of Appeals.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, in a decision this morning of sweeping character, dismissed the injunction proceedings between the United Railway and the city of San Francisco in connection with the Geary street municipal road, declaring that the federal tribunal has no jurisdiction.

The litigation begun by the United Railway was directed against the city, claiming that certain portions of the land were included in franchises held by the plaintiff. United States Judge Van Fleet issued an injunction against the city covering the section in litigation and an appeal was taken.

The court's decision today is to the effect that the matter is one for the State court to settle.

NIGHT SCHOOL ON PAR WITH OTHERS

District Court of Appeal Orders Hyatt to Raise the Standard.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—The night schools will hereafter be on an educational par with the ordinary day schools, as the result of a peremptory writ of mandate issued this morning from the District Court of Appeals and directed against Superintendent of Public Instruction Edward Hyatt.

Recently Hyatt issued an order directing that the attendance at night schools should only count for a half day's session, as it was only possible for a pupil to receive instruction for about two hours. There was much feeling in the matter in this city and the city attorney was sued to compel the restoration of the former credit system for night school attendance.

The case was argued at length in the higher court and today's decision was the result.

CONDUCTOR KILLED
WHEN TRAINS CRASH

Fatal Result of Collision of the Santa Fe California Limited in Arizona.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 2.—Elmer A. Boyd, conductor of the west bound California limited on the Santa Fe railroad was killed today when his train crashed head on into a train of east-bound empty passenger coaches at Crozier, Arizona, 33 miles east of Needles.

Edward Dushane, engineer of the limited was seriously injured. No passengers were hurt.

Boyd was riding in the baggage car of the limited. When the crash came, his trunk fell upon him, crushing him to death. The extent of Dushane's injuries is unknown. He was taken to the railroad hospital at Needles.

The limited collided with the train of empties while the men in charge of the latter were preparing to shunt their cars onto a siding to let the limited pass. Dushane managed to slow down considerably, probably thus saving the lives of the passengers. The limited, due in Los Angeles at 11 o'clock this morning will be 14 hours late.

Taft Excommunicated in Canada.

The Montreal Star, which was the leading journal in the Dominion to oppose the reciprocity agreement, labors under the curious notion that the result of the Canadian election will have profound political consequences in the United States. It seems to think American voters will take their tip from Canada and punish President Taft for advocating a reciprocal agreement that the Canadians rejected, because, as the mayor of Toronto said, it would make the Dominion knuckle down to the United States.

That a newspaper which, during the campaign, represented the "Yankees" as a broken-down, corrupt, bankrupt nation, should cherish the delusion that the people of the United States care a rap about what is done politically in Canada is quite natural. The bumpiness of it is comical, however. It is so English you know—English in the sense that Lord Dunsany is English and the London "Arry" a true type of the modern Englishman.

The facts are no more as the Montreal Star represents them than Mr. Podsnap was a representative of the cultivated well-informed Englishman of Dickens' day. If the editor of the Star is not a lineal descendant of Podsnap, he has inherited the opinions and point of view of that ridiculous person.

A vast majority of Americans favored reciprocity with Canada—not because they desired political union with that country or wanted the Canadians to "knuckle down" to them, but because they believed freer trade relations would be a mutual benefit to both countries—and they are not going to punish President Taft because the Canadians allowed a foolish spirit of Chauvinism to control their judgment. This Yankee nation does its own thinking and its own voting, and it is not going to be influenced by the absurd colonial Toryism of the Canadian Conservatives. Only an obtuse intellect could entertain such a fancy.

While Americans in general favored the reciprocity agreement, they were not greatly concerned about it. They were not downcast when Canada voted to reject the agreement. They regarded the abuse heaped upon them by the Tory-Conservative press of the Dominion with amused contempt. They do not blame President Taft because the Canadians voted against the agreement. Why should they? Canada had the better of the bargain, and if they chose to cut off their noses to spite their faces they do not greatly care. They are not even angered at being called "Yankees." It is not a term of reproach in this country, and the Yankee is not in the habit of going to school to the Kanuck.

But the superfluous ass in Montreal who imagines that Americans are waiting to hear from Canada before deciding how to vote is decidedly a humorous person—objectively. He knows nothing about the springs of American sentiment nor the motives which govern political action in this country. If he did he would not put President Taft on the retired list because Canada has untied the dog and run under the bed for fear that the bloody Yankees would eat her up. It is a hilarious opinion this Kanuck editor has of himself and his country. His idea of the United States is shriekingly funny. If he would recite his editorials in monologue on the American vaudeville stage he would make a fortune. He is so silly that he is inexpressibly comic. But what's the use? It's a waste of lather to shave an ass.

Superior Judge Wallace of Tulare county has given an interview to the Visalia Times that is worthy of attention. Judge Wallace says he is in favor of the recall principle, but denounces the proposed amendment to the Constitution as dangerous and un-American. His reasons are the same as those THE TRIBUNE has given on several occasions, namely, that it is monstrously unfair to official incumbents. Any scheme that permits the holder of an office to be recalled and his place given to another, although that other may not receive half as many votes as the incumbent, is a travesty on justice and common sense. It provides a machinery that invites attacks on officeholders, which it practically disarms. It is a scheme devised in trickery and dishonesty and has been urged in hypocrisy and deception. Judge Wallace has laid his finger on the rotten place in this crooked measure of pseudo reform.

Dam-Breaking Disasters.

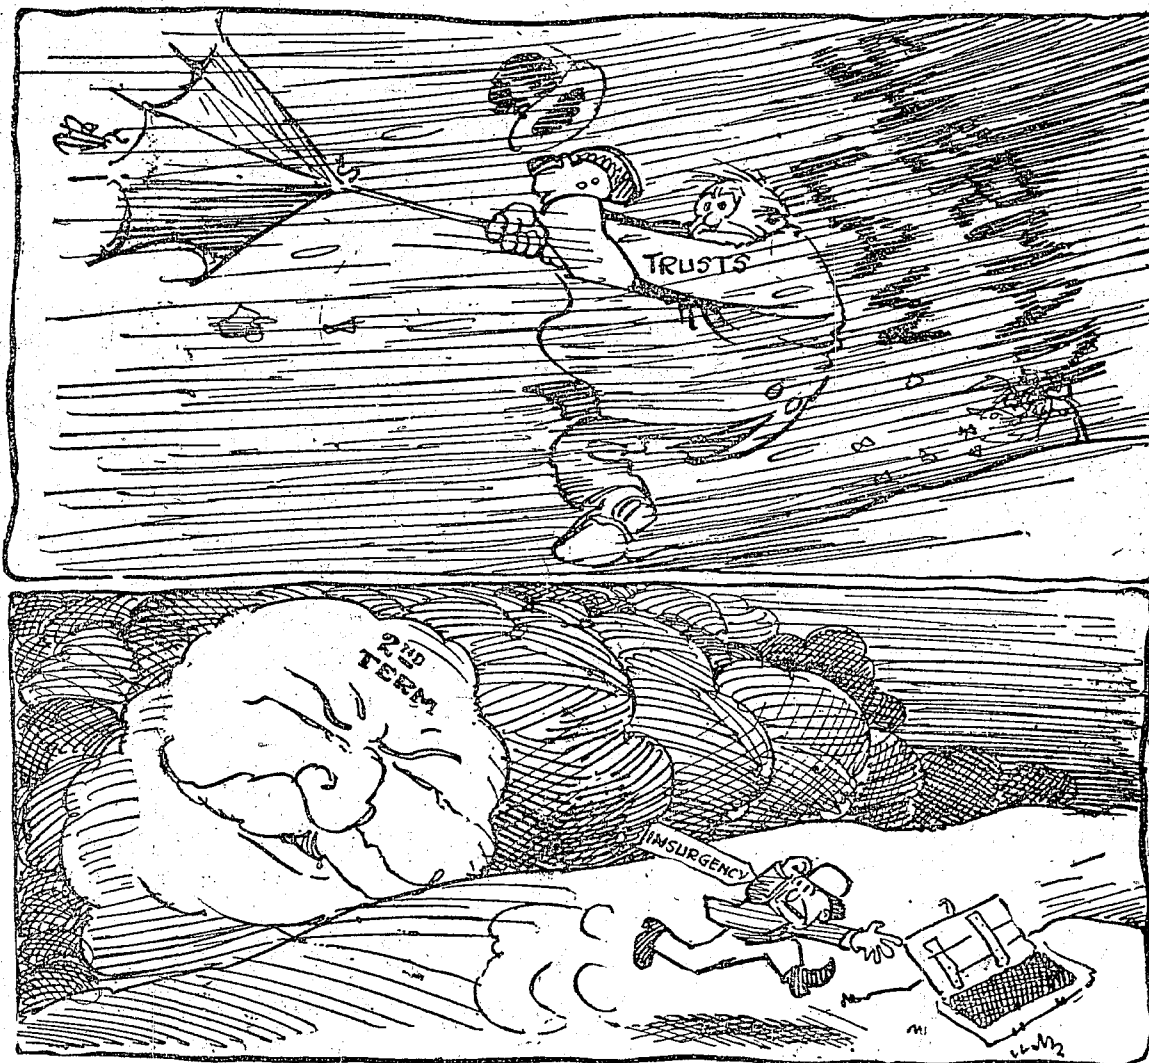

The flood at Austin, Penn., recalls the terrible disaster which overtook Johnstown in the same State nearly a quarter of a century ago. Both resulted from the same cause—the breaking of an artificial dam. The loss of life and property at Johnstown was enormous because a thriving and prosperous city of considerable size was overwhelmed with the flood. The disaster which befell Austin was less destructive only because the town was small and the district exposed to inundation limited.

The calamity calls attention to a public danger and a public duty. Many dams have been constructed throughout the country for power purposes that imperil towns and farms below them. These dams were constructed by private parties in accordance with their own plans and ideas. There was no public supervision of the work. In each State laws should be passed requiring the construction of dams to be officially supervised. The plans should be passed upon by some competent engineering authority in the service of the State, and while in progress the work should be inspected. All dams now in existence should be examined and those found unsafe condemned.

It is little or no protection for the public that the owners of dams are legally responsible for the loss of life and property caused by breakages. The owners are financially unable to pay the damage caused by such disasters as occurred at Johnstown and Austin. Besides, money is no compensation for the loss of life entailed. There should be some effective regulation governing the erection and maintenance of dams at points where they menace the dwellers on the stream below.

Elections in Mexico are always won by the man who controls the army and the election machinery. It is not surprising therefore that Francisco I. Madero won an overwhelming victory at the polls. The campaign was a farce with tragic accompaniments. The opposition was terrorized and Madero's opponents virtually driven from the field. However, it is hardly worth while to discuss this phase of the situation since Diaz came into power originally by ousting his predecessor by force. The important thing is the kind of rule that Madero will give Mexico. Diaz gave the country peace and security and set in motion the forces of development. If Madero can tranquilize the country and keep it in the path of progress he will do something worthy of the esteem of mankind and win an honorable place in history. But he succeeds a great man and his performance will have to stand comparison with one that has excited the admiration of the civilized world.

LET'S BLAME IT ON THE EQUINOX

—ST. LOUIS TIMES.

The Pan-Islam Crusade Nonsense.

The war between Italy and Turkey has once more set the alarmists talking about the danger of a pan-Islam crusade—a holy war of Moslems against Christians in every part of the world. The siege of Vienna and the battle of Tours are recalled, as if there was a possibility of the weakness of the Christian world in medieval times and the power and splendor and enthusiasm of Islam at its zenith being restored.

The fear of a Pan-Islam uprising is idle. The Moslem world is broken into fragments. It no longer has cohesion or a central authority. True, the Sultan of Turkey holds the green flag of the prophet and claims to be the spiritual successor of Mahomet, but in Persia his spiritual authority is denied and his political power defied. The vast majority of the Mahomedans in India reject the spiritual domination of Stamboul; and, besides, the Moslems are not the dominating sect in India. They are in a minority and are hated by all other Indian sects.

In a military sense the followers of the prophet are weaker today than they have been at any time since Omar took Jerusalem. They have no effective organization, and the notion that they could invade Europe is preposterous. They have been far behind in the march of human progress. An enormous majority of them are subjects of Christian powers. The notion that they could unite and make effective opposition to the organized forces of Christendom is preposterous.

For a century or more the idea that Islam could make united and effective front against the civilization of Europe has been a figment of the imagination. Napoleon saw that it was a spent force. The Turk rusted and dreamed at Constantinople when all Europe was aflame with internecine strife. He showed neither energy nor capacity when the French invaded Egypt, and ever since the tottering throne of the Sultan has been propped up by Christian bayonets.

Let the green flags be raised and the Ismans preach a holy war and the Turk will be chased out of Europe in short order. In a brief space not a Moslem sovereignty would be left on the face of the earth. Russia would seize Persia and France Morocco, and the powers would divide up the Sultan's Asiatic empire.

The holy war-myth has been cherished and cultivated in Europe for political purposes. It has been employed by tricky diplomacy to justify all sorts of fantastic dealings with the Turk. The Christian nations have played it against each other, well knowing that the hordes of Atilla are as likely to return and overrun Europe as that the tide of Mohammedanism will ever rise again. It is pure nonsense to assume that there is danger of a Pan-Islamic crusade.

There is danger, however, that the war between Turkey and Italy will bring the great powers of Europe into collision. Russia and Austria both have their eyes on Constantinople, and Italy longs for the ancient possessions once held on the Adriatic coast. English and German fingers are itching to get a share of the Turks' possessions, and Greece thinks Macedonia should be hers by right. This conflict of selfish desires is what sustains the Turk in Europe, and it is this conflict that gives the present war a threatening aspect.

Mud banks for retaining walls are devices of mud-head engineering. They are foolish and futile attempts to defy the law of physics and reflect on the intelligence and technical skill of those who construct them. They are failures as constructive work and are rather too expensive as lessons in experience.

ORIGIN OF 'BOOSTER'

Everyone knows what a boom is, as applied to a town. Charles Dickens described it seventy years ago in the "city" of Eden, although the actual word had not then been coined. But for a long time—indeed, until lately—things were managed very unscientifically. The art of booming was a most one-sided affair, chiefly worked by the real estate owners or agents. "Cities" so made—arising in a single night—showed a lamentable tendency to "burst up" or "move on." There was an absence of local pride, which is such a conspicuous feature of the new order of things—the order of the "boosters."

"Boost" is a common American term meaning to "push upwards." In 1829 the first Boosters' Club was formed at Spokane, Wash., for the purpose of boosting Spokane into the place, which through its natural resources and attractions, it deserved. The club, which comprised practically the whole population of the town, drew up rules in which every soul pledged himself to regard Spokane for conversational and advertising purposes "as the center of these United States and God Almighty's creation, and never to let a day pass without having done something in word or deed to boost this town."

Booster clubs began to spring up all over the West. They spread to the East, to the North and to the South, and now the prevailing sentiment has grown local as to find expression in the phrase, "Cuss America; give me Oshkosh." Americans who formerly went about with the American flag in their hats and the American eagle in their button-holes have now substituted photographic views of their own towns or local emblems, in default of regularly-granted municipal coats-of-arms.—October Strand.

Recall and Reaction

There are many reasons why the present situation in Seattle is regrettable, not the least among them is the wide reactionary influence it will exert. Friendliest defenders of governmental innovation will find it difficult to excuse the agitation growing out of Seattle's acceptance of the initiative, referendum and the recall in the face of the industrial and mercantile revolt against it. The most radical of radicals can hardly fail to see that security and tranquility are necessary to business, that business is necessary to business, that business is that a political device, no matter how well intended, which breeds popular disturbance and cripples trade is not a panacea.

The business men of Seattle are in rebellion against the application that is being made of the recall in that city. Aside from all abstractions, it appears to be used principally in Seattle as a bludgeon for the settlement of private and political scores. Worse still, it seems to have become a convenient and a favorite weapon for malcontents. Elections settle nothing, for the minority has it within its power at least to threaten, and to keep on threatening, to overthrow the will of the majority. A mayor elected last February was scarcely installed before a movement to oust him was set afoot. There is an element in every large and growing city like Seattle that is highly entertained by public agitation and social and business disturbance, but until recently no community has thought it advisable to place instruments that might easily be snatched for destructive purposes in the hands of this element.

Manifestly conservative Seattle has become tired of the whole performance. It is demanding, and properly, a return to sanity, safety, stability. In this case many previous instances of a similar character, thoughtless, impetuous, reckless radicalism brings a reaction that checks the general progress of political and economic reform.—Christian Science Herald.

Mankind's Servants

Hertzian waves are rendering service to mankind in numerous ways besides saving life at sea by fishing S. O. S. and their usefulness will increase rapidly with the passage of time.

COTTON CROP RETURNS

In his annual report of the cotton crop grown in the year 1910, Secretary Hester of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange places the value of the crop at $917,355,589, and to this he adds the value of the cotton seed, $112,777,938; making a total of $1,030,133,527. These are astounding figures and they represent that much gold which the manufacturers paid to the Southern producer. This total represents a value of $85 per bale. There are many cotton raisers of the South who remember the day that their cotton brought them 4 cents a pound, or $20 a bale. If a little figuring is done it will be noted that the $112,000,000 value of the cotton seed alone is equal to a cotton crop of over 5,000,000 bales at 4 cents a pound. And it is not much over a third of a century ago since 5,000,000 bales was looked upon as a big crop of cotton.

Mr. Hester places the value of the cotton grown in the South during the past seven years at $5,038,000,000. This is a yearly average of $700,000,000. It would be interesting to know how much of this $5,000,000,000 has gone from the farms of the South to the farms of the West for corn, flour, oats, hay and meats and other products of the farm. There must have been much of it and this has helped the Western farmer along so that he can discard the horse and the plow and substitute steam and power machinery with which to cultivate his lands and harvest his crops. While he and his family rot up to the meeting houses at home and to the theater and the big shopping stores of the city in his costly automobiles, the cotton raiser still has with him the horse and the mule and the ox to cart his cotton crop to town, there to turn his cotton into food for his own table and for the support of his animals.

The hope of prosperity for the Southern cotton farmer now, and now as never before, is to raise those things at home needed for food for himself and for his live stock. Until the Southern farmer does this he will be at the mercy of the money lender and of the grain and hog raiser of the West, who have for years jingled in their own pockets millions of the gold poured into the South for her cotton.—Mobile Register.

WEATHER TODAY and NEXT DAY

Meteorologists have been turning their attention toward a discovery of the causes for the unusual and protracted heat of this summer, its wide diffusion, and the early date at which it began. They can not much enlighten us as to present causes, but they are able to indulge themselves in a great deal of interesting conjecture as to what it all means for the future. Their statements as to average and mean temperatures for many years past being correct, and justifying the comparisons they make, we may therefore entertain, even if we do not accept, their conclusions as to what is coming to use in the processes of time.

A high official of our Weather Bureau has been giving reasons for a growing belief in the meteorological world that we are at the beginning of the era of disappearance of cold waves; that the earth is entering upon a "good old summer time" which, after reaching the point where the mental and physical activities of the race are to be greatly multiplied, will continue for three centuries, during all of which we will mount higher and higher in the scale of achievement if we continue taking advantage of opportunity as we have long been doing. That point reached, there will be a pause, or a change so gradual as not to be perceptible. Then during another three centuries we will begin declining into that position toward our sun which will bring the freezing out process which, scientists agree, will be the end of us.

All of this is so well tabulated and demonstrated as to be almost convincing. Believers in a much higher race as the crown of evolutionary processes, find in it much food for thought. We of this generation can not, of course, hope to be of the crowning race, unless the heredity of reincarnation helps us to it through force of our merit. And such a heresy can not be so acceptable to us as the assurance that some time again, in the dim future, there will be a pronounced end to hot weather which hangs on until mid-September.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Knocks on the door of his sanctum recalled him to earth. In staggered a perspiring waiter.

"F-p-please, sir," he stammered. "I'm in a terrible fix. A gent has just ordered roast mutton!"

"Well, what of it?" snapped the manager. "There's plenty of it, isn't there?"

"Y-es, sir," "X-es, sir," the distracted knight of the napkin, "but he's already had one portion for venison!"—Answers.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

Not only are the school children but the friends and allies of different teachers throughout the county are anxious for THE TRIBUNE vote contest to begin. All realize that it is an important event, for what honor could be greater than to be recognized as the most popular teacher among many hundred candidates.

The Southern Pacific officials have instructed their watchmen to make a determined raid on all tramps attempting to steal rides out of Oakland. Most of this sort of thing is attempted at the Sixteenth street depot.

A. F. St. Sure has gone to Oroville to bring down his mother and family, who will take up their home in this city.

For a comparatively young state, it is astonishing how California runs to universities. We have already the State University, the Stanford University, the University of San Jose and a limping sort of so-called university at Los Angeles, besides the newly organized Throop University of Pasadena.

The new courts of the Madison street tennis club presented a very gay appearance Saturday afternoon, when the grounds were formally opened with a brilliant exhibition by prominent players.

Yesterday morning at the grounds at Emeryville the Colonels bested the Ducks by a score of 12 to 9. A new pitcher named Jackson did the twirling for the Oakland nine.

TOURING EGYPT BY BELL THEATER STARS IS A JOY

LEM and LILLIAN ORTH, who "tour" Egypt and the land of laughter at the Bell Theater.

If your money does not earn 6%, or if in order to make it earn 6% you have to tie it up for long terms in mortgages, then you should interest yourself in "Syndicate Sixes."

Syndicate Sixes pay 6% net, and you absolutely control the term of your own investment.

They are backed by the total assets of The Realty Syndicate of Oakland, California, and are thoroughly safe.

These assets are valued at over twenty million dollars—more than six times our issuance of certificates.

The people of California have invested in Syndicate Sixes for over sixteen years, and no one ever lost a dollar of principal or a cent of interest.

No matter where you live in the State we can give you, if you desire it, the names of investors in your own county and probably in your own town, who have invested with us and who will gladly tell you of the all around satisfaction of "Syndicate Sixes."

To the man retired from business, to women dependent upon the interest earnings of their capital, to professional people, to the business man with a surplus, Syndicate Sixes form an ideal type of 6% investment security, because

You can invest any amount you desire for any time you wish and get 6% interest from the day you deposit to the day you withdraw.

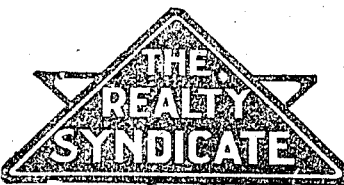

You owe it to yourself to investigate this proposition.

You can have your certificate made out so that in case of your death both certificate and interest will immediately be turned over to any one you previously elect, without delay, probate or order of court.

You'll find them more satisfactory than small mortgages, more stable than stocks or listed bonds, and as safe as any bank deposit.

You deal directly with the officers of the company, who are at all times ready and anxious to give you full information and who are always at your service.

A request from you upon a postal brings full information. The proposition is well worth investigating.

If one can get as much fun out of a tour of Egypt as Lem and Lillian Orth do at the Bell Theater this week, where they are presenting their laughable oddity, "Touring Egypt," then there is much to be gained beside the satisfaction of seeing the wonders of the world that this land possesses. Not only do this pair get a good share of fun out of their act, but the audiences are the recipients also in large amounts, for the tour resolves itself into a merry melange of songs, dances and chit chat that is fun-producing to the core.

One harks back to the old days of minstrelsy while Russell and Smith's pretentious minstrel organization are on tap. Here you are regaled with the good old minstrel first part with the end men, the bones, the tambourine, the interludes, etc. Five stars in minstreldom, all leaders in their particular forte, present this very entertaining number. Fred Russell, formerly of Haverly's, is among those present, also Harry Smith in the interludes chair, who will be remembered as the famous soloist with Leonard's darktown crew. George T. Martin, tenor soloist with another old-time minstrel band, and William McKenna, delightful baritone soloist with Al Field's organization. Songs that you'll remember and jokes that'll tickle your funny bone are only a part of the diversions in store.

Frank Mortyn Kelly, an old favorite with Bell audiences, is back in Oakland after an absence of five years and still radiates fun and good fellowship at every pore. He is here in his old vehicle, for it seems the public never tire of Kelly in the role of "Tom" in his laughable skit, "Tom and Jerry." From the rise of the curtain until its fall upon the end Kelly succeeded without any apparent effort in keeping his auditors in one continuous laugh. "Tom and Jerry" was rebuilt for no other purpose than to create laughs and the two succeed admirably in the desired result.

Dainty Miss Howard, no bigger than a good sized watch chain, is all pliancy mixed with cleverness in a pleasing dance and song number. She has two nimble-footed assistants who do some tiptop dancing, the trio combining to produce an act that gets by in good shape.

If you have forgotten Gerard, the heroic heavyweight juggler, who toys with cannon, torpedoes and other heavy projectiles, you cannot forget his grotesque assistant, nameless on the bill, but nevertheless just the fellow to give an act of this character enough dash and diversion to permit the remarkable character of the Hercules feat of Gerard to sink in, as it were. There are always "doubting Thomases" in every vaudeville audience, and a heavy weight-juggling act as a rule slips by without much comment, but in Gerard vaudeville possesses one of the strongest and cleanest act performers before the public.

Ernest Meisel adds a touch of art to the bill with his delightful renditions on the violin, seemingly all too few to satisfy his appreciative audiences. Motion pictures that depict the antics of a bathing beauty at the beach with an attendant, and a show as attendant wind up one of the best hours in weeks at this popular theater.

SIX ARE CRUSHED UNDER AUTOMOBILE

Machine Crashes Into Fence While Speeding Along Great Highway.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2. — No change for the worst was noted today in the conditions of the six persons who were injured, three seriously, when an automobile tearing around the curve at Sloat boulevard and the Great Highway at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, crashed into a fence at terrific speed and overturned, pinning the six occupants of the machine underneath. The automobile, which it is said, but the tenant was torn off the machine and thrown on the unconscious form of the driver, Alfred Brewen.

ISRAEL ATONES FOR SINS TODAY

Yom Kippur Celebrated in All Oakland Temples of Worship.

Carrying out the traditional idea of Israel's day of atonement, Yom Kippur was celebrated in all the houses of worship in this city today. In deference to the holy day the local business houses were closed. The Jewish merchants and their families filled the temples, where sacred music and prayers were offered.

At sunset last evening Kel Nidre services were held in all the temples, and a strict abstinence from food commenced at 6 o'clock. The most pious Israelites will not touch a morsel of food until sunset this evening. Many of them passed the entire day in the house of worship.

Rev. Dr. Friedlander conducted the devotion in the First Hebrew synagogue this morning, when he delivered a sermon upon "The Reservation of the Jewish Spirit." Last evening his subject was "A Voice from Within."

"The Jew as a High Priest" was the theme of the address preached by Rev. Meyerweiser, rabbi of Beth Jacob synagogue. "Sin and Forgiveness" was the topic for the Kel Nidre sermon.

CURING CATARRH

Accept Our Advice and Try This Remedy at Our Risk.

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membrane. The mucous membrane is one may say, the interior lining of the body. Catarrh therefore may exist in any part of the system.

When the catarrhal poison attacks the mucous membrane, inflammation and congestion are produced and nature fails to throw off the accumulated poisons. The organ which has been afflicted ceases to perform its proper function as nature intended it should. The result is, complication upon complication which may lead to other even more serious afflictions.

We honestly believe Rexall Mucoc-T will do wonders toward overcoming catarrh. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician who made a long study of catarrh, and by his great success with this remedy was an enviable one.

We want you, if you are a sufferer from catarrh in any form, to give Rexall Mucoc-Tone a thorough trial. Use it with regularity and persistency for a reasonable time, then if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every cent you paid us. This is certainly the fairest offer that anyone could make and should attest our sincerity of purpose. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at the Owl Drug Store, 1410 Tenth and Washington, Thirteenth and Broadway, Sixteenth and San Pablo.

'PRESIDENT HOUSE' WILL SOON PASS

Residence on Harvard Quad Occupied by Elliot to Be a Storeroom.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 2. — President Lowell will break an old Harvard custom when he changes his residence from the old brick "president's house" in the college yards, to his new home about to be built on Quincy street, adjoining the Harvard University.

For more than a quarter of a century this little house has sheltered the presidents of Harvard University.

President Elliot made his home under its roof for the 40 years that he was head of the great university. President Eliot and his wife lived in the house from 1861 to 1881 from a fund left by Peter C. Brooks and his wife.

It is uncertain as yet to what use the building will be put, but it is possible that it may be used as a library store room.

LAND WAR SETTLED.

UTAH, Oct. 2. — It is reported that settlement between the Alder creek settlers and the L. E. White Lumber company, whose place of business is on the coast section of this county, has been settled and that the only difficulty now existing is said to be between the lumber company and a new party of squatters. Many of the old settlers have sold out their rights to the company, which holds script on the claims.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS

Because It's for One Thing Only and Oakland People Appreciate This.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Dean's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They help sick kidneys. They are for backache, other kidney ills. Here is Oakland evidence to prove their worth.

Mrs. H. Shaff, 667 E. Twenty-seventh street, Oakland, Cal., says: "I hold just as high an opinion of Dean's Kidney Pills as when I publicly recommended them over two years ago. I then said that this remedy had been used in our family and had brought positive relief to one who had suffered a great deal from backache and other symptoms of kidney complaint. The benighted Dean's Kidney Pills brought me convincing proof of their efficiency. I have never hesitated to recommend this remedy when the opportunity has presented itself."

STATE'S GERMAN CELEBRATE HERE

Landing of Pastorius Is the Occasion of Great Celebration.

The German-Americans of California celebrated the two hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of the landing of Pastorius, at Shell Mound Park yesterday afternoon with a picnic and public prize shoot. Despite the unfavorable weather a big gathering of Germans from Oakland, San Francisco and other bay cities attended the celebration.

The crowd gathered early in the afternoon and before the exercises began at 2 o'clock there were at least 5000 people in the park. A program of shooting, dancing, bowling and athletic games had been arranged and there were big lists of competitors in each event.

In the public prize shoot Captain John D. Heise won first honors with a mark of 237. D. Schwormstedt was second with 247 and E. Schlerbaum third with a score of 253.

The San Francisco Turners won the silver cup in the hurdle relay race with the Oakland team second.

Exhibitions by the senior and junior Turners were given during the afternoon and the little fellows won a high a course of drill which reflected credit on their teachers.

Under the direction of Prof. J. R. Rieger, the grand chorus of the Pacific Saengerbund rendered a number of selections and Hoge's orchestra played after-noon. Miss Clara Hermann recited a prologue by Joseph E. Fishaller, which was applauded.

The oration of the day was delivered by Albert Curdin, president of the league, who is en route to Washington, D. C., to attend a national meeting of the organization, sent a telegram of congratulation to the local society.

John H. Homan, president of the league, who is en route to Washington, D. C., to attend a national meeting of the organization, sent a telegram of congratulation to the local society.

FLIRTING PRINCESS WINKS AT OAKLAND

Harry Bulger Brings Lively Musical Comedy to the Macdonough.

Musical comedy having developed into a good excuse for displaying pretty girls, and giving light and frolic, and allowing the several stars to get a lot of vaudeville out of their system, we may dub the Flirting Princess a success. Harry Bulger chaperoned her royal highness to the Macdonough theater, last night, and saw that she had plenty of admirers in the audience.

The program "Something may happen at the Cafe Trouville. The which seems to be a license for the improper delivering a staggering blow to the possible.

There is no more of a plot to "The Flirting Princess" than there is to any of the multitude of melodrama mixtures that have been brewed in Chicago, but you don't care as long as there is something that sounds like music and skin are a mere brevity. There is plenty of swing to some of the numbers on the bill and you catch yourself tapping your feet in an aftereffect.

Bulger is lighter on his feet and speedier with his vocalism than you'd suspect at first sight. His comedies borders on the farcical but remains within the bounds of decency and he succeeded in making his audience howl last night.

Solo Fuller, a young man, seconded him in his efforts and Miss Helen Darling plays a snaky sort of an Egyptian princess who is ready to slay is to look and speak dreamily and to kiss without the slightest excuse. Drus-Peck is handled well by Eileen Sheridan.

Honors of the evening were accorded the "Egyptian Turkey Trot," the "Oogie Dances" and "The Gloom Gloom," three dance numbers starting enough to dam up your breath and with just enough originality to be new.

There is, in fact, plenty of light and color in the thing, a multitude of girls and a goodly display of little thread. "The Flirting Princess" is, therefore, a good musical comedy. It claims to be no more.

KICKED BY MULE, HE SUES FOR BIG SUM

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 2.—Dynamite, a mule, is the central figure in a complaint filed in the Circuit Court by the attorney of Frank Castor. The Columbia Contract Company, averred to be owner of the mule, is the plaintiff. The mule is alleged to have ruined the plaintiff's earnings ability and Castor sues for $20,000 damages.

Dynamite is accused of having broken into Castor's tenhouse and then to have broken through the floor. Castor claims that being compassionate, he worked until he had liberated the animal. Once outside, the mule glanced sideways at Castor and recognized in him one of the men who had held him bound with chains during the process of shoeing a few days before. Then the mule kicked out the complaint alleges, with the following results: Kick No. 1, Castor's right arm was smashed; Kick No. 2, the plaintiff's right hand was lacerated and permanently crippled; Kick No. 3, four of Castor's ribs were caved in. Kicks two and three were delivered after the plaintiff lost his senses, he avers.

COMPENSATION ACT IS NOW IN FORCE

October Ushers in Important Statute; Opponents to Fight It.

SEATTLE, Oct. 2. — Washington's new employers' compensation act, the first of its kind to be tried in this country, is now in force, the law passed by the legislature having gone into effect with the ushering in of October. Hereafter every workman injured while engaged in a hazardous occupation will have his claim for damages settled through the state employees' compensation commission without appeal to the courts, as the case recently decided by the Supreme Court is not subject to the federal tribunal.

The next fight will be waged upon the theory that the State Supreme Court has written a new constitution for Washington. It is contended that if the right of trial by jury can be abolished in this instance it can be taken away in others. It will take not less than three years to get a ruling from the United States Supreme Court.

TONIC FOR WOMEN.

Irregularities form the source for female troubles. A general breakdown following weakness leaves the patient in a nervous and irritable condition. Toning up the system and restoring the female organs to their normal condition becomes imperative. A good tonic is always advisable to strengthen and build up the system. The function of the published formula is to correct the results of errors and remove the cause of suffering. It is primarily a regulator, acting on the lower bowels and building up the system in general.

FORMULA—FEMALE TONIC.

Fl. Ex. Valerian..... 1 oz.
Fl. Ex. Senna..... 1 oz.

LAXATIVE FORMULA.

Chronic constipation is frequently brought about by sedentary habits, inactivity and lack of exercise. It retards the proper assimilation of the food and makes digestion difficult. In such instances, three things happen. The nerves become less sensitive, the rectum becomes dilated and its muscular fibres weakened and constipation follows. Suppositories and enemas used for this complaint sometimes leave the bowels in a flaccid condition.

This formula, if properly compounded and taken as directed, will aid the digestive organs and cause the bowels to perform their natural function. Twenty-four hours is required in compounding this mixture. It is not nauseating, but very palatable.

FORMULA—LAXATIVE.

Fl. Ex. Rhubarb..... 1/2 oz.
Fl. Ex. Buckthorn..... 1/2 oz.
Fl. Ex. Senna..... 1/2 oz.
Ole. Menthae..... 5 drops
Saccharine..... 15 Grains

ECZEMA FORMULA.

Experience has shown that a thorough test should be given a treatment for eczema before the formula is discarded. Much disappointment in the result of treatment has been occasioned by changing medicines, causing the disease to break out afresh and run through all its stages again. Had the treatment been continued a little while longer, uninterrupted, recovery might have followed.

The formula which appears on this page has a healing and soothing effect. It allays all irritation and often eradicates eczema permanently. As the formula calls for a sufficient amount of lard to furnish treatment for a month, it would be well to use it as directed until it is exhausted.

FORMULA—ECZEMA LOTION.

FORMULA FOR KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES.

Kidney and bladder troubles are caused by poisonous impurities which clog the kidneys. Intense pain is the result and sleepless nights follow. The patient becomes annoyed with sharp pains shooting through the back and up the spine. These pains often grow so violent and acute that the victim suffers the greatest agony and is driven almost to despair. The cause and remedy which has settled in the kidneys must be removed in order to procure relief.

The formula here published contains ingredients which have a combined effect of acting on the kidneys and restoring them to their natural condition. It cleanses and purifies them, strengthens and invigorates them and encourages proper filtration. It relieves the pain, gives strength to the nerves and revivifies the mind and body.

Hints for You

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright: 1911: By Lillian Russell.)

ANY people do not realize the charm of speaking gently and quietly at all times. To speak loud when in the presence of strangers is, to say the least, not at all in good taste, as loud voices always attract the attention and indicate in the person so speaking a lack of manners. Although it is often only thoughtlessness of the speaker, it creates a bad impression. The best morning exercise to take is walking, unless one is so fortunate as to have the use of a riding horse. Before starting on a lengthy walk, however, a glass of milk should be indulged in. A hearty meal should not be partaken of until one's return, and then it must be eaten slowly.

One cannot have a good-looking hand if the fingers are broad at the tips. Pressing down on the ends of the fingers from the first point to the tip will, if done many times a day, remedy this defect. It is surprising how the fingers may be improved by following this rule if one is forced to flatten them by operating the typewriter or practicing long hours on the piano. Where there is a deposit about the joints of the fingers, coming from an excess of uric acid, their "humpiness" can be greatly ameliorated by pressing your thumb and forefinger on each side of the joint and making a rotary motion with the forefinger.

One of the best remedies for dark circles or hollows under the eyes is eight hours of good sound sleep every night; but the person, however, who sleeps curled up in bed can never hope to have nice shoulders and back. Stretch out and relax all your muscles, have plenty of fresh air in your room, have warm but not heavy bed covering and you will be surprised to see how rested and refreshed you will feel in the morning. Remember, it's the little details of beauty which make it most admired.

Lillian Russell

ANXIOUS—There have been some wonderful surgical operations performed, but if I were you I should consult my family physician on the subject before doing anything of the sort. Remember in considering the surgical methods for improving the appearance of the features that in case of failure the result will be most conspicuous. The astringent ointment for reducing the lips must be used persistently for several weeks before any marked improvement will be noted.

RAB—Cucumber juice is good for removing freckles from the face and arms. Slice the cucumbers, peel and all, and slinger until they can be pressed through a sieve; then add a little alcohol and use frequently. Buttermilk and lemon juice are also excellent for taking off freckles. Squeeze the juice from a lemon into half a glass of buttermilk and apply with a soft cloth several times daily. Always use cold cream afterward. If the freckles are deeply burned in and do not yield to these mild bleaches I shall be glad to send you the recipe for an effective French bleaching lotion when you send the self-addressed, stamped envelope with the formula for the hair curling fluid.

READER—An oily skin with enlarged pores often results from indiscretions in diet from careless bathing. Sometimes too many sweets and food too rich are at the root of the trouble. Another more frequent cause is the indifferent manner in which women attend to their ablutions. Many women do not mean to be neglectful, but for timely necessary when cleanliness is to be assured. Soap and water alone will not thoroughly cleanse the skin. A good cold cream must be used. Never use coarse or harsh towels on the complexion. This has a tendency to coarsen and thicken the skin. The skin on the face is more sensitive and delicate than any other part of the body and should naturally be treated with respectful care. If you will write your address, I will send you instructions for a simple treatment for removing blackheads from the complexion, and recipes for an excellent cleansing cream, and for an astringent lotion which will close the pores and remedy oiliness of the skin.

CONSTANT READER—I am sending you the recipe for an excellent French glove paste which is good for whitening and beautifying the skin of the hands, and for the cold cream which I use in the theater. Do you suffer with rheumatism? This disease frequently causes the joints to become enlarged and the skin to dry. It takes a long time to reduce the size of large knuckles. However, I think if you will rub the hands and fingers gently and thoroughly every night with the cold cream they will gradually improve. When applying the cream begin at the finger tips and work upward toward the wrist.

HELEN—The hands not only reflect one's character and temperament, but health as well. When the skin is dry and the veins are prominent the local circulation needs stimulating, and if the hands are gently and thoroughly rubbed every night with a good cream they will soon improve. If you will send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope and letter asking me for the recipe for a good, nourishing cream I will be glad to send it to you. When applying it begin at the finger tips and work upward toward the wrists. Do you really want plump hands? They are sometimes pretty when they are not red, which is frequently the case, but they are never as expressive as a long, slim, flexible hand, which has more character than either the plump or the small hand and is therefore the one to be cultivated. Whitening creams which contain oxide of zinc are injurious to the skin if used constantly. The oxide of zinc will in time ruin the skin, leaving it dull and without a healthful glow.

Women in the News Today

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The fast Patchogue Express, on the Long Island Railroad, rushing westward through the blinding rainstorm last night, plunged into a taxicab at the Grove-street crossing in Freeport, killing two of the vehicle's occupants, Mrs. J. Darnell, wife of the head of one of the largest lumber concerns in the south and a society leader in Memphis, Tenn., and her daughter Beatrice.

The younger daughter Pauline, who was to enter Miss Bangs' fashionable school for young women today and William Colman, a young man of 20 and son of the late S. M. Collier, were fatally injured, as was the chauffeur, John Mott.

The train struck the taxicab fairly in the middle and tossed it forty feet ahead on the tracks, where the engine again picked up the wreckage and ground it to pieces.

Mrs. Darnell and her daughter Beatrice, who were sitting on the rear seat of the cab, were instantly killed. Miss Pauline Darnell, young Collier and the chauffeur, in the forward seats, were flung clear of the tracks.

Mrs. Darnell and her two daughters came to New York last Thursday to put the younger daughter in school and were guests at the Hotel Astor.

Elopers Caught

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snydam of Spokane, Wash., youthful elopers, were caught here by Jimmy Reed, a detective of that city, who had traveled 4000 miles to prevent their marriage if possible, and left here tonight for the Pacific Coast.

The couple ran away from Spokane together and were married in Seattle. Reed reached that city shortly after they left and learned that they had gone to New York city for their honeymoon. They reached that city Friday and Reed located them, but learned they came here yesterday afternoon to see Yale's football game. He found them at the railroad station late last night on their way back to New York.

The Snydams were not arrested, but agreed to accompany Reed back to Spokane. Snydam's father is a multimillionaire timber owner and railroad magnate.

New Service

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—Members of the Boston Suffragette organization have declared in favor of a new marriage service, as drawn up by Miss Alice Stone Blackwell, leading exponent of votes for women in this city. The service is as follows:

"I take thee to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold, etc., in sickness and in health, to love, honor and cherish, till death us do part."

"I promise to aid and assist my husband (or wife) in every way and to help him (or her) to uphold his (or her) political views and I agree to settle all marital difficulties out of court."

Mrs. Dowie Preaches

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Clad in a white surplice and the cape and gown of a doctor of divinity, Mrs. John Alexander Dowie, widow of the late leader of the church of Zion, yesterday made her first attempt to bring together her husband's former disciples. Seventy-five members of the original flock responded to Mrs. Dowie's appeal and met at Handle Hall. In the midst of the service, Mrs. Dowie broke down and in a voice choked with sobs pleaded for a continuation of the work begun by her husband.

Mrs. Dowie's appearance was the first in public since the death of her husband nearly five years ago. She was enthusiastically received by members of her future tabernacle group and fealty to the faith of Dowie was pledged by her hearers.

Meetings of the tabernacle will be held weekly and will virtually oppose the organization controlled by William Glen Ylva, overseer of Zion city and the "second divine apostle" of the church of Zion.

LAKE CHARLES, La., Oct. 2.—Two dead, two fatally shot and four less seriously wounded is the net result of a free-for-all fight at Oakdale last night. The tragedy occurred at a negro boarding house. A negro woman and a white man were killed. All the wounded were whites.

WELL AFTER TWENTY-SIXTH OPERATION

PHILADELPHIA.—Well and strong, but only after twenty-six operations had been performed, is the fortunate condition in which Margaret Doyle, of 101 North Twenty-sixth street, finds herself after fourteen years in the Medico-Chirurgica Hospital.

The 19-year-old girl was operated on four years ago for appendicitis. Although the operation was successful the wound did not heal, and a series of operations were necessary.

What Women Are Doing

NEW YORK.—A Newport dispatch to the New York American says:

A name of prominence in the social world, but which may not be mentioned by those who know the story, is connected with an exciting game of bridge which took place a few days ago in one of the most beautiful homes of the cottages colony.

The name is the name of a society woman, who lost at one sitting a sum well over the four-figure mark. Although all in the game were pledged to secrecy, because the woman's husband had given her the money for a specific and very different purpose, some one has told the story—confidentially—to some one else, and it is going the social rounds.

TOO BASHFUL TO WED.

NEW YORK.—Charles Schuler of Rosebank, S. I., and his fiancée, Miss Mary Kauffman, who lives on the other side of the garden wall, agreed to be married last evening. So Schultz telephoned to an alderman, who hurried to Schultz's home.

"I shall step next door and fetch my bride," said Schultz. But he returned alone. He tried again with the same result. Asked for the cause, he told the alderman his fiancée said she was too bashful to marry. So she didn't.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y.—Traveling 15,000 miles to meet the man of her choice, Miss Katherine Kipp left White Plains today for Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Her fiancé, Gerald Peabody, is a geodetic surveyor in the employ of the Brazilian government.

For several days Miss Kipp has been the guest of her uncle, William Roman, here. She is a native of Los Angeles, Cal., and is a graduate of the Leland Stanford University. Mr. Peabody is also a native of California, and the trip of Miss Kipp is the outcome of a romance begun in childhood.

PEREMPTORY MANDATE TO DISMISS DETWILER CASE

ORDER LAWLOR TO QUASH CHARGE

District Court of Appeal Demands End of Detwiler Indictment.

Unanimous Decision of the Court Results in Today's Action.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—The District Court of Appeal, shortly before noon, issued a peremptory writ of mandate compelling Superior Judge William F. Lawlor to dismiss the charges of bribery against A. K. Detwiler, an official of the Home Telephone Company. Recently Attorney W. W. Kaufman, representing Detwiler, petitioned the court to order the dismissal of the case, as Judge Lawlor had refused to strike them from the calendar notwithstanding that the defendant had been ready and eager for trial.

The matter was argued at considerable length and today, by the unanimous decision of the court, the peremptory writ of mandate was ordered issued against Judge Lawlor and he will now be compelled to dismiss the accusation.

Detwiler was indicted by the Oliver grand jury at the same time as were the other defendants in the so-called graft prosecution. He, however, did not surrender himself, and for over three years remained out of the jurisdiction of the state. It was not until the disappearance of "Big Jim" Gallagher that Detwiler surrendered in Judge Lawlor's court here and since then he has been demanding a trial.

POLICE PREVENT HIGHBINDER WAR

Two Members of Hop Sing Tong Arrested Armed With Revolvers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—When the police of the Chinatown squad arrested Lee Wing and Chin Chow, two members of the Hop Sing Tong, at a late hour last night, they believed they nipped in the bud what was to have been the drawing of the first blood in a highbinder war. The authorities have known for several days that war has been declared by Hop Sings and the Sin Sing Yuenens, the trouble originating from a gambling debt. Last night, when Policemen McPhee and Cummings saw Lee and Chin in a nearby place, they thought it best to take them into custody, found large revolvers on each of them and charged them with carrying concealed weapons.

REV. HERBERT A. JUMP of New Britain, Conn., who has been called to the First Congregational Church of Oakland.—Bushnell Photo.

Upon recommendation of the members of the pulpit committee of the First Congregational, Rev. Herbert A. Jump, pastor of the New Britain Congregational church, the congregation issued a call to him yesterday after the regular morning service held in the auditorium, Twelfth and Clay streets. A telegram announcing the decision of the church was sent to Dr. Jump last evening and it is expected that he will accept the position.

Dr. Jump created a favorable impression among the parishioners of the First Congregational church when he recently delivered a series of sermons while he was on his vacation.

The eastern clergyman is a graduate of the Yale divinity school, of which Rev. Charles R. Brown, former pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, is the president. Dr. Jump was recommended by President Hyde of Bowdoin College, Maine, where he had been pastor. He was also praised by Rev. Charles R. Brown.

The pulpit committee is composed of nine members. They are: R. H. Chamberlain, chairman; C. Z. Merritt, F. M. Dodge, C. E. Rush, Wallace M. Alexander, G. T. Hawley, F. S. Stratton, Cary Howard and C. E. Keyes. Comments favoring the endorsement were made by Rev. J. K. McLean, pastor emeritus of the church; George H. Collins and W. B. Barnard.

Fifty years ago the First Congregational church was established and since that time three pastors have headed the sanctuary. They were Rev. J. K. McLean, Rev. George Moor and Rev. Charles R. Brown.

Live Wire Carries Death To an Italian Workingman

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Instantly killed by a current of 20,000 volts of electricity, Salvatore Zullo of 465 Chestnut street paid the penalty for his ignorance of the danger of a live wire shortly after 9 o'clock this morning at the plant of the Italian-Swiss colony, Battery and Greenwich streets. A new building is in course of construction there and some carpenters, throwing a rope, struck the wire, causing a portion of it to fall to the ground. Zullo was called to get it out of the way and he went forward and is believed to have seized hold of the deadly wire. His body became rigid and he fell heavily to the ground. The Harbor ambulance was summoned but when Steward Nicholas arrived he was already dead. He was about 40 years old and resided with his family at 465 Chestnut street.

$50 Reward for Enthusiastic Rooter

Vernon Supporters to Spend Money in Aiding Team to Annex Pennant.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 2.—"To stimulate interest among rooting" baseball fans during this week's series between Vernon and Portland, and especially to help the Villagers on the way toward the pennant goal, four enthusiasts in this city have offered a reward of $50 to the rooster who "roots" most entertainingly during the next seven days.

The men who offered the reward are Hector Mackenzie, Arthur McDermott, Lon Hill and Ed Weston. Under their direction a committee to make the award has been appointed. The committeemen will attend every game and watch for likely "rooters." Articulation, enthusiasm, persistency and wit will be considered in the placing of the reward.

Woman Aids Thug In Oakland Holdup

Police of Oakland are searching for a woman footpad who is said to be the companion of a man who last night held Harry Cruch of 1040 Filbert street while he was on his way home at a late hour. The hold-up occurred at Thirteenth and West streets. According to Cruch, the highwayman stepped up to him and, placing a revolver against his head, searched his pockets and obtained a cheap watch and $5 in coin. While this was taking place the woman, who was well dressed and good looking, kept watch to notify her companion of the approach of pedestrians or police. Cruch declares that the woman made no attempt to conceal her face, but that the man was masked.

HARRINGTON TO TELL STORY MONDAY

Attorney Scheduled to Appear Before Grand Jury in the South.

Accused of Making Overtures to Send Mrs. Ingersoll Out of State.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 2.—By stipulation between the district attorney and Clarence Darrow today the appearance of John R. Harrington before the grand jury to testify relative to alleged attempts to influence witnesses in the McNamara case was postponed until next Monday.

Harrington was summoned by the inquisitors to explain charges that he had made overtures to D. H. Ingersoll of San Francisco to have Ingersoll's wife leave the State. Mrs. Ingersoll will be called upon at the McNamara trial to identify James B. McNamara as "James B. Brice," one of the three men who are believed to have purchased high-powered dynamite from a San Francisco powder company a few days before the blowing up of the Los Angeles Times.

In an affidavit filed with Judge Walter Bordwell, following his arrest on the contempt charge, Harrington denied all knowledge of the Ingersoll charges. His claim that as an attorney for the defense he was exempt from grand jury questioning on matters relating to the McNamara trial was overruled by Judge Bordwell, and he was ordered to appear and give the information asked or stand trial. He chose the former alternative.

SUPERVISORS ARE ASKED TO SEND HEALTH OFFICER

State Conference on Sanitation to Be Held at Santa Barbara; Routine Business

The supervisors this morning filed a recommendation from the State Board of Health requesting the attendance of a representative from the State Board of Health to the State conference on sanitation to be held at Santa Barbara from the 23d to the 27th of this month.

The communication set forth that the State Board of Health recommended to the proper authorities of each county and municipality in the State, in view of the small compensation paid to its health officer and the great benefit resulting to the communities from the conference on uniform methods of health administration and the traveling expenses of the health officer he paid by the county or city. Last year this was done for about half of the health officers.

"Every trustee and supervisor knows," continued the missive, "of instances in which needless expense and much friction have resulted from disagreements between the city and county health officers over questions of quarantine, early reporting of epidemic diseases, etc. General conferences such as this promote cooperation and uniformity of action in preventing the spread of diseases. The State Board hopes to receive an early reply from each county and city announcing a decision to send its health officer or a substitute delegate to this conference."

THANKS FOR SUPERVISORS.

The clerk received and read the following from the Oakland Chamber of Commerce:

"Please convey to the Board of Supervisors the appreciation of the Chamber of Commerce of Oakland of their cordial co-operation in the matter of endeavoring to retain the State game farm in Alameda county." Filed.

Resolutions adopting public work were adopted as follows on the recommendation of County Surveyor Haviland:

The water plant on the Lake Chabot road, Mt. Eden township, by T. B. Russell, the macadamizing of a portion of the Altamont road district, Murray township, by P. H. Hoare, at a cost of $2000, thus entitling the contractor to receive

KING CITY MAN VICTIM OF THUGS

Contractor Beaten and Robbed of $50 on Way to Hotel in a Hack.

Man Is Unable to Give Police Any Clue to Identity of Assailants.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Kidnaped in a cab in the manner of twenty years ago, robbed of his money in a lonely section of a strange city, and left in a wretched condition on the pavement, Arthur Wallace, a contractor of King City, had a harrowing experience early this morning.

Wallace arrived at midnight on the Los Angeles passenger train at the Third and Townsend street depot. He hired a two-horse hack to take him to the Argonaut hotel. As soon as he had taken his seat on the inside where a driver and a second man were sitting together, but thought little of it when the latter got in beside him.

The horses were whipped up, and the vehicle had proceeded about fifteen minutes when it was suddenly brought to halt in a dark street, and Wallace's traveling companion and the hackman threw him to the floor of the cab, beat him about the head, and took $50 in gold and his baggage checks from his pockets.

It was some time before the dazed man recovered his senses and obtained shelter at 915 Folsom street, where at 8 a. m. he reported the occurrence to Officer H. L. Sauer.

It was learned that the robbery had occurred on Bryant street, between Ninth and Tenth, but Wallace has absolutely no clue to the identity of the robbers. He could not see the number of the cab.

SISTERS HEAR EXPLOSION IN ORDER FOR A CROWDED CAFE

While at Phone Switchboard Learn Their Brother Is a Murderer.

One Collapses at News, But Other Remains at Post of Duty.

DIXON, Ill., Oct. 2.—Hazel and Rilla Webster, sisters of Dr. Harry E. Webster of Chicago, who told the police that he had murdered his wife near here, went through a trying experience Saturday night. The girls are the night operators in the local telephone office, and while attending to their duties Hazel, the younger of the two, heard a message going over the wire from the Dixon authorities to the Chicago police.

"The body found here has been positively identified as that of Mrs. Webster," said a man's voice. "Arrest Webster and hold him." "All right," answered the desk sergeant at the Chicago avenue police station.

Rilla, stunned by the shock, turned from the switchboard in time to catch her sister, who had collapsed. The elder sister called for help and sent her little sister home. Then she hastened out the tangle of wires and went back to her post.

REMAINED AT HER POST.

Calls poured in from every direction. Newspaper correspondents were demanding connections with their offices in Chicago, and the residents of Dixon put in the calls. Frequently the girl was asked for news of the murder.

She replied courteously to all questions and stuck to her work until 7 o'clock Sunday morning.

Dr. Harry Elgin Webster is a Rush Medical college graduate and an intern at the Polyclinic hospital, in Chicago. Yesterday in a confession to the police he admitted that he murdered one of his two young wives, Bessie Kent Webster of Chicago, in the woods 10 miles from Dixon, Ill., September 19.

The police declare that the motive for the crime was Webster's desire to hide from his first wife, Zoe Varney Webster of Cedar Rapids, Ia., the fact that she was a bigamist. He had married the two women within one week last January.

The accidental discovery of Bessie Kent's body Friday, almost two weeks after she had been killed, was followed by identification Saturday and the arrest of Webster yesterday.

BARKER AGAIN HAS LEASE ON HOTEL

The Inn will be operated on both plans, catering to the family and the tourist. It is the terminus of the Key Route trains, with trains every twenty minutes to San Francisco. Deluge of Stew, Beans, Broken Pies and Cream Puffs Damage Customers.

Boy and Japanese Employee Hurt When Hot Water Tank Blows Up.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 2.—Patrons of a Hill street cafeteria last night had the ocular demonstration of how "food is shot from guns," and today as a result clothes cleaning establishments are harvesting wrecked pie, cream puffs, stew and other soft foods from suits and gowns.

The cafeteria was crowded when a hot water tank attached to a food warmer went dry and blew up. A loud report was followed instantly by a cloud of broken pies, beef joints and roasts, while the walls were spattered with coffee and soup.

Only two persons received injuries, however. John Morris, a boy, was struck on the head by a brick torn out of the wall by the explosion. E. Keno, a Japanese employee of the cafeteria, was painfully scalded by the contents of a coffee boiler which was hurled across the room.

HARD LUCK TALE HALTS HIS CASE

A. J. McDougall Blames Match Company for His Downfall.

Admitting to Judge William S. Wells this forenoon, in the criminal department of the Superior Court, that he forged Attorney A. P. Leach's name to a check for $9, but pleading in extenuation of the crime that he was persecuted and driven to hunger by the Diamond Match Company, A. J. McDougall asked that his case be referred to the probation officer and the request was granted.

The prisoner told Judge Wells that he had been employed in one of the factories of the Diamond Match Company up to the time that three of his right foot were so badly crushed by a timber falling upon them that they had to be amputated. The corporation refused to do anything for him on account of the injury. McDougall declared, although he offered to settle with it for $1000. Then he threatened suit for damages. The prisoner declared that since then the Diamond Match Company hounded him and that when hunger drove him to the factory that got him into trouble, here an agent of the corporation advised the authorities that he was an ex-convict in order to get him in state's prison for a long term.

McDougall confessed to the prior conviction but told such an impressive story of hard luck and poverty that Judge Wells concluded it was a proper case to be referred and the district attorney's office made no objection.

Elongated Youngster Wins Another Extra Inning Contest From Wolverines; Jake Umpired

By BERT LOWRY.

Oakland dropped two yesterday and in consequence lost the series to the Quitters. What do you think of that! Over on this side of the pond where baseball is still Big Chief the Senatorial outfit chased four runs across the pan while weuns chased but one. On the preserves in San Francisco Patsy's gang gathered two after fourteen innings of play and the Wolverines gathered but one.

On our lot Mr. Wolverton presented.

Tiny Leonard, one time of St. Mary's college and then of the American League champions, and this much for the series. Mr. Leonard, when he gets into condition again and the season of 1912 breaks in on us, Mr. Wolverton will have one nice pitcher added to the side.

Mr. Leonard's true, got away badly and the Senatorial outfit bumped him for three bingles and three runs in the opening round. But's nothing. Other pitchers have got bumped and for more than that, too. Just bat Mr. Leonard.

JAKE BAUMGARTEN UMPIRED.

Mr. Hildebrand, umpire classic of the league, partook of music in the evening of Saturday and availed with an attack of ptomaine poison, which left him weak and unable to perform his duties as umpire, so Judge Thomas F. called up on the irrepressible Jake Baumgarten to do the umpiring and Jake did.

In the before-lunch session, Jake, was a Jack Sheridan and made a big hit. In the afternoon session he wasn't a Jack

Sheridan, but to the fans over the bay he is what matters. But where's the ump, that is infallible?

All of us make the wrong deal sometimes, and maybe Jake was wrong when he called Patterson safe at third. He saw the play through, so why should the fans, away off in the bleachers a mile away, howl and yell? Jake wasn't bad is what matters, and the league could do worse in signing up ump. for the season of 1912.

FAT GETS ROUGH AND IS HOOKED.

With the score in a knot and Baumgarten like a Christy, the tenth inning came and with a run in between the Redwinder Pat and the pugnacious Jake, and the pugilistic Jake won for Patsy viewed the game from out of the lot.

Pat objected to a ruling and having the crowd with him tried to bat the ump, but he wouldn't budge. He was so angry stood his ground until Pat picked up his bat and beat it.

Without anything at stake the two teams hammered and poked at each other like a couple of Kilkenny cats and when it was all over the hatchet was buried deep in the ground and everybody went home with a good ball game,

both before the feed and after the feed.

Here's the scores of what happened:

DIAMOND GOSSIP

Jake Baumgarten, after a long, three-month absence, was given the chance to handle the indicator in the Coast League game yesterday at Oakland and San Francisco, and he made a good thing of it. In the morning things broke better than in the afternoon and Jake had no trouble, but in the afternoon it was a stormy session for the hitter, and he

in the seventh inning he rendered a decision that started the fans to boo-hoo-

ing. So come, Judge, just put forth a little rule that no Coast League player be permitted to accept bonuses of any kind for winning games. They are paid a salary and a good one at that.

that Sacramento did not play their game

of laying down, but"

CALIFORNIA AND STANFORD

SHOULD PLAY FAST CONTEST

Relative Strength of Two Teams Hard to Judge Now, but Both Have Great Individual Players

While it may be somewhat early to pass opinions as to which team will win the big intercollegiate football game between the University of California and Stanford, yet it is not too early to compare the two.

Comparisons in scores made by the universities against the same opponents are not always a good basis to work on to get at the relative strength of the two varsity teams. This has been done by the fans in the past years with so little success that the average follower of the two university teams is at a loss to know how to get a definite line on the ability of the opposing team.

It is the old saying, that figures never lie, but in the case of Stanford and California this has been proved a fallacy time and time again.

This season California defeated the Olympic club 22 to 0, while Stanford conquered the same team by a score of 19 to 0, or more than double California's score. Notwithstanding, the fact that the California team is showing a far better advantage than the Stanford team.

The blue and gold men today show great individual work in the back field and in the line. The team work is greater, and the case at Stanford individual work is good, but combination and team work that wins a game.

Individualism is all right for playing the game, but it is not the way to win

unless every man on that team shows

individualism that welds itself into combination.

U. C. GREAT ON COMBINATION.

California is showing greater combination at the present time than the boys from Palo Alto. The machine like precision in the back field that exists, Morris, Allen, Stroud, Elliott and Peart, will be one of the greatest riddles that Stanford will have to solve November 11.

Stanford on the other hand, shows streaks of good individual work in the backs, but the taking of passes, supporting the runners and other incidentals that go to make up that necessary adjunct

combinational work is not nearly so well developed as in the blue and gold team.

There is evidently something wrong with the Stanford squad, and no one knows it but the coaches. After the game last week with the Olympics, Presley pulled away from the crowd and stayed at Berkeley and it is the only picture of dejection at the showing made by his men. The team did not seem to have what is known in varsity circles as "pep" and it is this "pep"

that counts for the greater part of the success of the team when worked with the necessary combination work. California's players are full of "pep," in fact,

seem to be overloaded with it.

Another thing that seems to be more case to do so, is the college spirit. At Berkeley the bleachers just bristle with spirit and support for the team, while at Stanford

the support is not so strong. This might be something to do with the showing made up to the present by the Stanford men.

There is a feeling that these conditions

before the day of the big game, but it is a lucky thing for Stanford that the big game is more than a month away.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES TO ADD TO REVENUE
City Expert L. G. Jordan Has Plan to Increase City's Income.
LETTERS TO CITY COUNCIL MAKES HIS SUGGESTIONS
Standardizing of Weights and Measures Would Also Be Used.
Increase in the revenues of the city through changes in the license rates and also through weights and measures regulations to bring these to standard is advocated by City Expert L. G. Jordan in two communications to the city council filed this morning. The matter was referred to Commissioner of Public Revenue and Finance John Forrest. The letters follow and are self-explanatory:
Oakland, Cal., October 2, 1911. To the Honorable, City of Oakland.
Gentlemen: As a means of increasing the revenue of the city, or of reducing expense, which amounts to the same thing, I have the honor to submit to you a number of suggestions. I am sure that the propriety of making certain small changes for the issuance of documents by city officials.
From the Bureau of Permits and Licenses:
For issuing obstruction permit.....$50
For issuing sewer permit.....$250
For issuing sidewalk permit.....$50
For issuing house number certificate.....$100
For issuing excavation permit.....$100
From the Health Department:
For issuing certificate of death.....$50
I further suggest the propriety of raising the fee for the issuance of a license to $150 per year to $250 or at least $250 per year, to take effect at once on new licenses issued at time of expiration of present licenses.
It is well known that in many eastern cities the abutting property owners and residents are taking an active interest in the standardizing of weights and measures throughout the country even so far as to suggest a provision for municipal control of inspection and certain expectations raised in Oakland regarding the matter warrant this report on the subject.
Respectfully submitted,
L. G. JORDAN, City Expert.

FINE AGAINST LINEKER IS DISMISSED BY COURT
Judge Wells Declares Osteopathy May Practice Optometry; Decision Regarded as Victory
Holding that there was no law in this state to prevent osteopaths from practicing optometry as a branch of his profession, Superior Judge William S. Wells this morning dismissed the judgment entered in August, 1910, by Police Judge George Samuel, which imposed a fine of $50 upon Dr. Charles W. Lineker, a prominent osteopath of Oakland, for fitting a pair of lenses to the eyes of one Sadie Schultheis. The case had been in the Superior Court on appeal for many months and Judge Wells' decision is regarded by osteopaths generally as a great victory for their profession. The prosecution of Lineker was conducted by the state board of examiners in Optometry, represented by Attorneys Louis A. Hillburn and Robert R. Moody of San Francisco, while attorneys Snook & Church, Fred W. Fry and O. R. Wood represented Dr. Lineker.
Containing that there was nothing in the statutes of California that prohibited osteopaths from practicing under authoritative certification their profession within the limits of osteopathy and that the care of the eyes properly came under the practice of osteopathy, Judge Wells held that the law was not intended to prevent osteopaths from practicing optometry as a branch of their profession. The law so specifies, the court held, provided always that the practitioner was duly qualified for his profession and held a certificate from the state board of medical examiners, both of which requirements Dr. Lineker possessed.
It was claimed by the prosecution that osteopathy was not entitled to come under the act that authorized the practice of a medical profession and surgery, but in this connection Lineker's attorneys replied in a subsequent and elaborately argued brief that the law was never the intention of the legislature to establish allopathy as the "state system of healing," as had been intimated by the prosecution, but that it was intended to establish a system of practicing medicine and surgery, and leaving no room for doubt that the legislature passed the subsequent act regulating all branches of the medical profession. The legislature had made it clear that there should be no distinction between different methods of treating the sick and afflicted.
NOT STATE SYSTEM.

PROBE ELECTION OF STEPHENSON
Sub-Committee Summons Accused Man as First Witness.
MILWAUKEE, Oct. 2.—With charges before it that United States Senator Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin obtained his election on March 4, 1909, by means of bribery and other corrupt use of money, the sub-committee of the committee on privileges and elections of the United States Senate formally began its sessions here today.
Senator Stephenson was summoned to be the first witness, after the preliminary proceedings.
The charges, preferred by the Wisconsin legislature are:
"That Senator Stephenson kept secret many of his disbursements in the primary campaign for the nomination in 1908; that, whereas, he admitted having expended $111,355, his campaign managers accounted for only $107,793, and that a large part of his fund was improperly used."
That fraud connected with his primary campaign contributed directly to his election.
That he distributed money to State officials to further his campaign.
That he spent money in legislative districts to strengthen his support in the legislature.
That he was elected only after a two months' deadlock and then only after three Democratic assemblies—Thomas F. Ramsey, now dead; John T. Farrell and Elias A. Towne, absented themselves and so insured his election.
WOMAN STRUCK BY TRIP.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Mrs. Peter Bayer of 164 Clara street reported to Policeman Arey that a man had entered her home last night and demanded money; struck her in the face on her refusal and ran off. She could give but an imperfect description of him.
